

2020 SCHEDULE

ASTROS MEDIA GUIDE

ON THE COVER:

The 2020 Houston Astros Media Guide cover highlights the Astros two Baseball Writers Association of America award winners from the 2019 season, American League Rookie of the Year Yordan Alvarez and American League Cy Young Award Winner Justin Verlander.

The cover also highlights the Astros as 2019 American League Champions, their second pennant in a threeyear span.

Alvarez is the Astros third Rookie of the Year Award winner, joining first baseman Jeff Bagwell, who won the National League award in 1991 and shortstop Carlos Correa, who won the American League award in 2015. He also became the fifth Cuban native to win the Rookie of the Year, joining Tony Oliva (1964), José Canseco (1986), José Fernández (2013) and Jose Abreu (2014).

Justin Verlander, who makes his second straight appearance on the Astros Media Guide cover, took home his second-career Cy Young Award and his first since also earning the AL Cy Young and AL MVP Awards in 2011 while with Detroit. Verlander is the fourth Astros pitcher to win a Cy Young, joining right-handers Mike Scott (NL,1986) and Roger Clemens (NL, 2004), and left-hander Dallas Keuchel (AL, 2015).

IN THE COMMUNITY

OVERVIEW

The Astros Foundation and Community Relations team manage a wide variety of community and charitable programs that focus on supporting youth baseball and softball, honoring members of our nation's military and veterans, aiding in the fight against childhood cancer, and helping address pervasive issues in our society such as homelessness and domestic violence. These efforts are an investment in the Houston community and speak to a culture of giving back that touches every facet of the Astros organization.

In 2019, the Astros Foundation continued to emphasize a commitment to service, and serving the Houston community at-large, with the Astros Foundation Volunteer Corps. Launched in 2014, the Astros Foundation Volunteer Corps recorded more than 16,000 hours, and boasted more than 4,000 registered volunteers who participated in over 300 events in 2019 alone.

A cornerstone of the Astros Foundation is the Astros Youth Academy, which offers local youth an opportunity to learn about and experience the game of baseball and softball. In 2019, the Astros Youth Academy softball team won its second-consecutive MLB Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities World Series Championship.

The Astros Foundation continued to grow the Community Leaders program, which provides young baseball and softball players with the environment and resources they need to develop mentally and physically.

Through fundraising and volunteer efforts, the Astros Foundation supports many local non-profits, dedicating thousands of volunteer hours each year.

In 2017, the Astros Foundation was awarded the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest recognition of the charitable efforts of its clubs, for the Astros Community Leaders program.

To learn more about the Astros Foundation and community programs, please visit www.astros.com/community or www. astros.com/foundation.

ASTROS COMMUNITY AFFAIRS

ASTROS ITEMS

The Astros' commitment to our community includes assisting qualified local 501(c)(3) nonprofits with their fundraising efforts through in-kind donations, including promotional or autographed items, tickets or ballpark related in-kind experiences. All requests must be made online. Information is available at Astros.com/community.

ASTROS PLAYER, ALUMNI AND FRONT OFFICE APPEARANCES

Astros players, alumni, owners and executives make a select number of appearances throughout the year. Businesses and groups who wish to request an appearance by an Astros player, alumnus or front office member should complete and submit an appearance application at least four to six weeks prior to the proposed event. The application should include detailed information on the event including specific date, time, exact location of the appearance, how many people will be in attendance and the purpose of the event. The Astros online appearance request forms are available at www.astros.com/community.

THE ASTROS FOUNDATION

The Astros Foundation, the official 501(c)(3) team charity of the Houston Astros, seeks to harness the passion of our fans to support youth sports and education programs, recognition/honor of our nation's military, childhood cancer and domestic violence awareness, and efforts to reduce homelessness. Its cornerstone initiatives include the Community Leaders program, the Astros Youth Academy and the Astros RBI (Reviving Baseball in Inner Cities) program.

The Astros Foundation hosts several marquee events throughout the year, including the Diamond Dreams Gala, Share2Care 50/50 Raffle, Safe At Home Luncheon & Style show, Badges & Bases H-Town Rundown, The MVP Coffee Series and the Astros Foundation /AT&T Sportsnet Charity Broadcast.

ASTROS COMMUNITY LEADERS

Developed by Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane, the Community Leaders program seeks to provide the next generation of young athletes with the environment and resources they need to develop physically and mentally. Baseball and softball teach young players the importance of teamwork, perseverance and commitment, principles that will serve them not only on the field, but throughout their lives.

The Community Leaders program has grown significantly since its inception in 2013. Through the help of its generous corporate partners, the program now impacts thousands of children and their youth baseball and softball leagues throughout the city, providing additional resources, instructional player and coaching clinics, infrastructure enhancements, uniforms and equipment. The Community Leaders program has expanded its footprint and scope to include established community centers and youth programs throughout Greater Houston, and provides tens of thousands of uniforms and equipment to children at no cost.

For its efforts, the Community Leaders program received the 2017 Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence, Major League Baseball's highest honor for the charitable efforts of its clubs.

ASTROS YOUTH ACADEMY 2801 VICTORY DRIVE, HOUSTON, TX 77088

A cornerstone of the Astros youth baseball and softball initiative is the Houston Astros Youth Academy, which provides free baseball and softball instruction, life-skills training and academic support to young athletes in the Greater Houston Area. The Academy's experienced staff members serve over 10,000 participants, year-round.

The Academy is also home to the Houston Astros RBI program, JrRBI program, summer camps and year-round clinics. Astros RBI, in it's fifth year as an Astros Foundation-run program, has already established a legacy of success, particularly the Astros RBI Softball Team, which has won consecutive national titles the last two years (2018-19). Additionally, the Astros RBI Senior Boys (2014-17) and Junior Boys (2015-18) each have four appearances in the RBI World Series.

Since 2014, over 150 RBI members have received baseball or softball opportunities to continue playing at the collegiate level. Since 2015, six RBI members have been drafted by Major League Baseball teams.

ASTROS 2020 CARAVAN AND FANFEST

The 2020 Houston Astros Caravan hit the road in January to bring the excitement for the upcoming season to Astros fans all over Texas! This year's Astros Caravan made stops throughout Houston, Round Rock and Corpus Christi to give Astros players, coaches and broadcasters an opportunity to connect with and thank fans for their support. Highlighted stops featured visits to Texas Children's Hospital, the Houston Food Bank, the Military Entrance Processing Station and the Barbara Bush Literacy Foundation.

Over 10,000 fans took part in the Astros annual FanFest presented by H-E-B on Saturday, Jan. 18. The annual event, which has free admission, featured free autograph sessions with current and former players, fan forums, multiple photo experiences, swings in the batting cages, running the bases and throws in the bullpen. One of the highlights of the day was the announcement of the Class of 2020 for the Astros Hall of Fame presented by Houston Methodist: Lance Berkman, Cesar Cedeno, Judge Roy Hofheinz, Roy Oswalt, Billy Wagner and Bob Watson.

ASTROS MASCOT: ORBIT

ORBIT

Height: Can you really put a measurement on FUN? Weight: A lot less in outer space

Species: Homerunus Spectacularus

Birthplace: Foul Territory of the Grand Slam Galaxy

Age: How long is a light-year?

Since rejoining the team in 2012 as the official mascot of the Houston Astros, Orbit has quickly become one of the most popular mascots in baseball and all of sports! During pregame, you can often find him giving a fun Astros "welcome" to some of baseball's top athletes such as Mike Trout, Aaron Judge, and Albert Pujols. During the game itself, be on the lookout for some of Orbit's signature shenanigans which can happen on the field or even right next to you in the stands.

Whether it's on the dugout, in the stands or on the field, Orbit's hilarious hijinks have garnered attention from some of the world's top media outlets, including ESPN, MLB Network, FOX Sports, CBS Sports, SB Nation, Yahoo! Sports, The Huffington Post, USA Today, E! Online, MTV, and GQ Magazine to name a few! Many of these performances can be found online, where their respective videos have collectively garnered nearly two billion views.

Orbit's contributions don't stop on the field. In the community, Orbit makes nearly 300 appearances a year! These include everything from public appearances such as community festivals and parades, to private events such as corporate events and birthday parties. Orbit also has been known to participate in a number of promotional stunts throughout the year, including taking on the BP MS 150 bike ride from Houston to Austin, rappelling down the side of the Four Seasons hotel, and tag-teaming events such as the Houston Marathon and the Cypress Triathlon with other Houston-area mascots. Additionally, Orbit offers a series of educational assembly shows geared toward elementary schools that cover topics such as literacy, anti-bullying, saying no to drugs, STEM and preparing for the STARR test.

In 2019, Orbit joined the team on their trip to Monterrey, Mexico, as they played the Los Angeles Angels as a part of MLB's International Series. This was Orbit's fourth international trip, including a trip to Japan (2014) and Mexico (2016) and Taiwan (2018).

In 2017, Orbit released his very first children's book, Orbit's First Day of School! The book covers topics such as making new friends, how to handle bullies, embracing differences, celebrating strengths and practicing respect. They are available for purchase exclusively at the Astros Team Store at Minute Maid Park.

ORBIT APPEARANCES

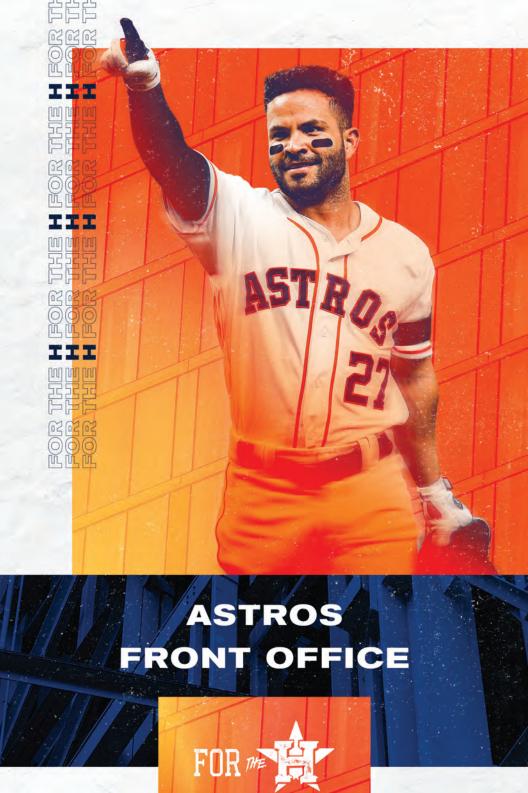

Book Orbit for your next event! He does birthdays, corporate events, Bar-Mitzvahs, sorority inductions, surprise haircuts and potty-training celebrations just to name a few!

JIM CRANE

OWNER & CHAIRMAN

On Nov. 17, 2011, Major League Baseball unanimously approved the purchase of the Houston Astros by a group headed by Houston businessman Jim Crane, marking the beginning of an era of Astros baseball.

As Owner and Chairman, Jim Crane hit the ground running upon taking control of the Astros in 2011 by immediately putting his plan to rebuild the franchise into action. As a highly successful businessman in Houston and former standout college pitcher, Jim's credentials made him the perfect choice to build a winning team both on and off the field in Houston.

From the start, Jim was clear about his goals: to make the Astros a ballclub that can have sustained success at the Major League level by building a top-notch farm system and to provide Astros fans with an outstanding experience at Minute Maid Park.

In just six years, Jim Crane took the Astros from worst to first in spectacular fashion. Houston's farm system, which was ranked as one of the worst in baseball in 2011, recovered in a three-year span to be ranked as the best in baseball in 2014. Since then, that same farm system has produced multiple Major Leaguers and everyday players and has given the Astros the ability to pull off multiple trades, all signed off on by Crane, including the acquisitions of Justin Verlander in 2017, Gerrit Cole in 2018 and Zack Greinke in 2019.

Buoyed by promotions and acquisitons, the Major League club went from a 111-loss season in 2013 to ultimately winning its first World Series Championship in 2017. The club has continued to produce at the highest level, as the Astros posted 100-plus wins in three consecutive seasons (2017-19). In 2019, the Astros set a franchise record with 107 regular season wins and won the American League pennant, their second in a three-year span.

In order to make the experience at Minute Maid Park one of the best in baseball, the Astros have made several large-scale renovations to the ballpark under Jim's leadership. The multi-million-dollar investment in center field, the addition of the Astros Hall of Fame Alley and the renovations and enhancements to the ballpark's suites were the most recent innovative updates that showcase Jim's commitment to making Minute Maid Park a great destination for fans of all ages.

Jim recognized the need for a new Astros Spring Training facility and successfully moved the team to West Palm Beach in 2017, where players and fans now enjoy a first-class, state-of-the-art facility, FITTEAM Ballpark of the Palm Beaches. Through a partnership, Jim also purchased an office building five miles from the Spring Training facility and had it redeveloped into a Hilton Garden Inn branded hotel which serves the public as well as Astros players, staff and families.

He also successfully brokered the purchase of the Double A Corpus Christi Hooks in 2015 and was closely involved with the acquisition of a Class A Advanced affiliate in the Carolina League in 2017. In 2019, that team had a new stadium built in Fayetteville, N.C., and a new nickname, Fayetteville Woodpeckers. Ballpark Digest recognized the Woodpeckers' brand with the 209 Logo/Branding of the Year Award in 2019. The Round Rock Express also rejoined the Astros family as the Triple A affiliate, starting in 2019.

Under Jim's leadership, the Astros have supported several of MLB's diversity initiatives, including MLB's eighth annual Civil Rights Game and ancillary activities as well as MLB's Diversity Summit, a sports employment and business opportunity career and trade fair. Houston has twice hosted the Urban Invitational, a nationally-televised collegiate baseball tournament designed to give HBCUs and their baseball programs national exposure, as well as the Breakthrough Series, a collegiate and professional scouting showcase featuring a diverse group of top high school players in the country.

Passion for the Game

Jim hails from St. Louis, Mo. where he became a loyal, spirited fan of the St. Louis Cardinals. As a teenager, he caddied for members of the Cardinals team at local golf clubs and parked cars for patrons at Cardinals games. Jim was impressed by the Cardinals' caring, family atmosphere and the team's close ties with the local community. He has carried these values forward throughout his life in business, philanthropic and personal relationships.

As a young man, Jim put his innate passion for baseball into action at Central Missouri State University (now the University of Central Missouri), where he was a standout pitcher for the Mules from 1973-76 under the late, revered coach, Robert Tompkins. Jim still holds the Mules' single-game strikeout record with 18, and in 1997, was inducted into the Central Missouri State University Athletic Hall of Fame.

Jim was the primary underwriter of a $1.2 million renovation in 1998 of the old Mules Field on the University of Central Missouri campus. On Jan. 21, 1998, the facility was renamed the James R. Crane Stadium/Robert N. Tompkins Field in honor of Jim and his beloved coach. Jim continues to contribute to the college annually to provide athletic scholarships for Mules baseball. On Jan. 29, 2017, Jim was enshrined in the Missouri Sports Hall of Fame for his outstanding pitching career at the University of Central Missouri, his generous donations to UCM baseball and his successful efforts in rebuilding the Houston Astros franchise.

Jim earned a Bachelor of Science degree in industrial safety from Central Missouri State University in 1976. This led to a loss-control job evaluating commercial risks for an insurance company and then a move to Houston in 1982, where he entered the freight forwarding business.

Success in the Business World

In March of 1984, at the age of 30 and with $10,000 borrowed from his sister, Jim founded Eagle USA Airfreight (EGL, Inc.). In his first office located in Houston with a sole employee, Jim handled the loading and trucking himself. The company made money in its first month, and Jim ultimately built it into an organization of more than 10,000 employees with 400-plus facilities in 139 countries. EGL was named one of Houston's "Best Places to Work," and reached No. 599 on the Fortune 1000 list during Jim's tenure. Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. The company was acquired in an LBO transaction in August 2007.

In August of 2008, Crane formed Crane Worldwide Logistics (CWL), a premier global provider of customized transportation and logistics services. CWL continues to grow rapidly with experienced members of Crane's management team and sales force at the helm.

Jim's love of baseball is unabated, and he has added the game of golf to his athletic endeavors. He acquired the Floridian, a private golf resort in Palm City, Fla., in 2010. In 2017, Jim ventured into the restaurant business and opened Osso & Kristalla and Potente named after his children. In 2018, he also took ownership of the Houston Open, the PGA TOUR tournament that was in danger of leaving the city. The tournament is operated under the Astros Golf Foundation and will transition to the Memorial Park Golf Course in 2020.

Jim also acquired Davaco, a leader in high-volume remodels and technology deployments for global brands. He then started a software company, Modiant, as well as Crane Safety, a commercial safety supply company.

Giving Back

As Astros Owner and Chairman, Jim has embraced the opportunity to give back to the City of Houston and beyond. In the immediate aftermath of Hurricane Harvey, Jim and the Astros ownership group were among the first to pledge $4 million to relief efforts. Jim also facilitated the shipment of more than 240,000 pounds of disaster relief supplies to Puerto Rico, where he was instrumental in transporting families of Astros and other MLB players, as well as hospitalized patients in critical condition, to safety.

One of his first initiatives was the creation of the Astros Community Leaders program, which won the prestigious Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence in 2017. In 2018, Jim introduced the Astros Golf Foundation to ensure that PGA golf and the funds it provides to local communities will continue to thrive. The Houston Open is now presented by the Astros Golf Foundation and has already made a huge impact to the Houston community, including a multi-million dollar renovation to the Memorial Park Golf Course in the city's center.

Jim is committed to providing local children the opportunities he feels baseball afforded him in his youth. A multi-million-dollar partnership was formed with the City of Houston's Parks and Recreation Department and included participation from several corporate partners, whose financial donations supported the field refurbishments, year-round maintenance, league programming and uniforms. Now, tens of thousands of young athletes receive free uniforms, equipment tickets to Astros games and professional instruction through the Community Leaders program. The parents, coaches and league participants also benefit from different types of clinics through the Community Leaders program, attending clinics on coaching, groundskeeping, nutrition, education, and much more.

"Baseball was very important to my development," Jim said. "Playing baseball made me a lot more confident and comfortable in my ability to achieve things. I'd like to be able to help more kids get the opportunities I had through baseball."

Jim has been the recipient of a long list of awards and honors for his entrepreneurial activities and business successes. Just this offseason, Jim was named a Living Legend by MD Anderson, he was presented with the Ben Taub Humanitarian Award at their Jubilee of Caring event, and he took home a 2019 Houston Sports Award as the Executive of the Year. In May 2018, he received the Public Service Award from the American Leadership Forum and was also inducted into the St. Louis Sports Hall of Fame where he received the August A. Busch, Jr. Award. On November 1, 2018, Jim was inducted into the Texas Business Hall of Fame and in December 2018 received the Jack Buck Award from the Missouri Athletic Club in St. Louis, Missouri.

PETE PUTILA

ASSISTANT GM, PLAYER DEVELOPMENT

Pete Putila (pronounced puh-TELL-uh) enters his 10th season with the Astros and his first as assistant general manager. In his new role, Pete is involved with all aspects of baseball operations with a focus on player development and sports medicine and performance.

Pete joined the Astros organization in 2011 as a baseball operations intern responsible for assisting with administration across baseball operations, amateur scouting, pro scouting and player development. He was hired full-time to the position of baseball operations assistant in September of 2011 where his duties were expanded to include major league advance scouting support.

In 2013, he was promoted to baseball operations coordinator where he began working in conjunction with decision sciences to integrate data, research and technology into player development processes across the Major and minor league levels while traveling with the Major league team in 2014 and 2015, conducting replay review.

In 2015, he was promoted to assistant director of minor league operations where he assisted in all aspects of Major and minor league player development and minor league operations. A year later in 2016 he was promoted to director of player development where he oversaw Major and minor league player development while assisting with the integration of scouting technology.

Pete is a graduate of West Virginia University where he received his bachelor's degree in sport management and served as the baseball team's student manager. A native of Carmichaels, PA, Pete and his fiancé Amethyst currently reside in Houston.

CRAIG BIGGIO

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM

Hall of Famer and longtime Astros icon Craig Biggio is in his 13th season as a special assistant to the General Manager. In this role, Craig works in several areas, including with the baseball operations staff in its Major and minor league player development programs with special emphasis on instruction, the amateur draft and scouting, and Major and minor league talent evaluation. Additionally, Craig participates in the club's community development program.

On Jan. 6, 2015, Craig Biggio became the first player in Astros history to earn induction into the Baseball Hall of Fame after receiving 82.7 percent of the total votes from the Baseball Writers' Association of America. He was also inducted to the Astros Hall of Fame on August 3, 2019, as a part of the inaugural class.

The franchise career leader in hits, games played, runs scored, and at-bats, Craig retired at the end of the 2007 season following a stellar, 20-year career, all with the Astros. His No. 7 was retired by the ballclub on Aug. 17, 2008.

He finished his career with 3,060 hits, 668 doubles, 291 homers, 1,175 RBI, and a .281 career average in 2,850 games. He remains the franchise leader in several categories, including hits, doubles, games played and runs (1844).

A first-round selection by Houston in the June 1987 draft, Craig became the first Astro to reach the 3,000-hit plateau with a seventh-inning single against Colorado's Aaron Cook on June 28, 2007 at Minute Maid Park. His 3,060 hits rank 20th all-time, and his 668 career doubles are the most of any right-handed hitter in Major League history and rank fifth all-time.

Craig's 20 seasons with Houston are a franchise record, and he also made a club-best 19 consecutive Opening Day starts. He is also the only player in Major League history to reach all of the following milestones: 600 doubles (668), 250 home runs (291), 2,700 hits (3,060), and 400 stolen bases (414). Craig and Cal Ripken Jr. are the only middle infielders (only 13 players all-time) to collect 3,000 hits and 1,000 extra-base hits.

Craig was named to a franchise-record seven National League All-Star teams, received five Silver Slugger Awards, four Rawlings Gold Glove Awards and was a member of six Astros playoff teams. Craig holds National League records for leadoff home runs with 53 (ranks second all-time) and for hits in interleague play with 201. He also led all players during the 2005 postseason with 18 hits.

Additionally, Craig was the 2007 recipient of the Roberto Clemente Award, a prestigious honor bestowed upon one Major League player each season by Major League Baseball and the Clemente family recognizing community service. Craig has been actively involved with the Sunshine Kids throughout his career, a support organization for children with cancer and their families.

Craig and wife Patty reside in Houston and have two sons, Conor and Cavan, and one daughter, Quinn. In 2010, Craig coached his sons'5t. Thomas High School baseball team to the Texas Class 5A state championship. Both Conor (graduate '15) and Cavan (drafted '16) played baseball for the University of Notre Dame. Cavan was drafted by the Blue Jays and made his Major League debut for Toronto in 2019. On Sept. 17 in Baltimore, Cavan hit for the cycle, making he and his father just the second father-son duo to each hit for the cyle in a Major League game; Quinn is a member of the Notre Dame softball team.

ENOS CABELL

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM

Enos Cabell is in his 16th season as a special assistant to the General Manager after being named to the post on Nov. 17, 2004. He had been serving as a consultant since joining the Astros front office on July 29, 2004. Enos assists General Manager Jeff Luhnow and the Astros scouting department in evaluating the Astros Major and minor league players, along with other projects and assignments within the scouting area.

During his 15-year Major League playing career, Enos played for the Astros from 1975-80 and 1984-85 and is in the top 10 in franchise history in several categories. In 1978, he was named the team's MVP after setting club records in at-bats (660) and games (162) and tallying a then-record 195 hits, which ranked third in the National League. He currently ranks tied for eighth on the club's all-time list in stolen bases (191) and tied for sixth in career batting average (.281).

Enos stole more than 30 bases for four straight seasons (1976-1979) while with Houston. In 1,688 career big league games from 1972-86, he hit .277 (1647x5952) with 60 home runs and 596 RBI. He started 149 games at third base for the 1980 National League West Champion Astros and played on two other division-winning clubs, the 1974 Baltimore Orioles and the 1985 Los Angeles Dodgers.

From 1991-94, Enos was an analyst on Home Sports Entertainment telecasts of Astros home games and from 1991-96, he hosted the weekly call-in show, Astros Report, on KCOH Radio. He was a member of the Texas Southern University's Board of Regents from 1995-2001 and served as interim athletic director for the school in 2000.

Enos is a graduate of L.A. Harbor Junior College in San Pedro, Calif., where he was an all-conference selection in baseball. He is a cousin of former Major Leaguers Dick Davis and Ken Landreaux. He and his wife, Ruby, make their home in Missouri City, Texas. Enos has three sons, Marcus, Stephen and Cordell.

KEVIN GOLDSTEIN

SPECIAL ASSISTANT TO THE GM, PLAYER PERSONNEL

Kevin Goldstein enters his eighth year with the Astros and second as Special Assistant to the General Manager, Player Personnel. He joined the Astros in 2012 as Pro Scouting Coordinator and spent four years as Director, Pro Scouting before being elevated to his current role.

Goldstein serves as part of the Baseball Operations leadership group and advises and assists with all playerrelated matters, including both in-person and technical evaluations across the professional, amateur and international disciplines as well as consulting on all 40-man transactions including trades, free agent signings and general roster management.

In addition to his Player Personnel duties, Goldstein conducts contract negotiations, manages the club's relationships with foreign teams in Asia and Latin America, and engages in special projects under the direction of the General Manager.

In his role as Director of Advance Information, Tom creates series-by-series advance reports and game strategy for the Astros coaching staff and players. Through the use of video and analytical tools, he also serves as Major League performance scout and assists the Astros front office in player personnel decisions and player improvement initiatives.

Prior to joining the Houston club, Tom served as Advance Scouting Assistant to the Seattle Mariners from 2009-13. He was also an advance scouting intern for the Milwaukee Brewers (2008).

A native of La Grange, Ill., Tom graduated from the University of Illinois with a BA in journalism and currently resides in Houston.

DEREK VIGOA

DIRECTOR, TEAM OPERATIONS

The 2020 season will be Derek Vigoa's fifth with the Astros organization. As the Director of Team Operations, Derek is responsible for Major League team operations, including travel and team services.

Previously, Derek spent four years at Wasserman, working on sponsorship and business operations consulting with top brands and properties in the sports and entertainment space.

Derek holds a B.A. in Communication from The University of Pennsylvania. He was a four-year varsity letter winner for the Quakers baseball team as a shortstop and was named Big 5 Rookie of the Year in 2009.

REID RYAN

EXECUTIVE ADVISOR, BUSINESS RELATIONS

Following the 2019 season, Reid Ryan made the transition to Executive Advisor, Business Relations after a seven-year run as the Astros President of Business Operations.

In his new role, Reid will serve as a valuable advisor to Astros Owner and Chairman Jim Crane as well as the Astros executive team. As part of his role, he will also continue to be present at many Astros games throughout the 2020 season.

Reid joined the Astros as President of Business Operations on May 17, 2013.

As president, Reid emphasized the importance of the fan experience and openly engaged with the Astros fan base at nearly every home game. He also played a significant role in the opening of the Astros Spring Training facility in West Palm Beach, the renovation of the new centerfield area at Minute Maid Park and the securing of the Astros High A affiliate in Fayetteville, NC, which included the construction of a new ballpark there, and the return of the Round Rock Express as the Astros Triple A affiliate.

Before joining the Astros, Reid was the founder and CEO of both the Corpus Christi Hooks and the Round Rock Express minor league franchises, both of which are perennially lauded as two of the top franchises in minor league attendance, stadium satisfaction and franchise value. Shortly after coming on board in Houston, Reid helped to bring the Corpus Christi Hooks into the fold as an owned and operated affiliate of the Houston Astros. On Aug. 16, 2019, Reid became the first executive ever inducted into the Round Rock Express Hall of Fame.

Reid's history with Texas baseball goes back decades. During the 1980s, Reid was a bat boy for the Astros while his father and Hall of Famer Nolan was an All-Star pitcher in the Astrodome. He later pitched at the University of Texas and TCU, playing a part in two Southwest Conference Titles (Texas '91, TCU '94). Reid went on to pitch in the minor leagues for two seasons (1994-95) in the Rangers system after being selected in the 17th round of the June 1994 Draft.

Reid and his family are members of Second Baptist Church Houston. He and his wife Nicole are the proud parents of one son, Jackson, and two daughters, Victoria and Ella. The Ryan family lives in Houston.

GENE DIAS

VICE PRESIDENT, COMMUNICATIONS

Gene Dias joined the Astros in February of 2009 and now enters his 12th season with the ballclub. Prior to joining the Houston organization, he spent close to 20 years with the Philadelphia Phillies in both Media and Community Relations.

Following the 2017 season, Gene was named the recipient of the 2017 Robert O. Fishel Award for Public Relations Excellence. The Fishel Award goes to the "active, non-uniformed representative of Major League Baseball whose ethics, character, dedication, service, professionalism and humanitarianism best represent the standards propounded by Robert O. Fishel."

Gene plays a major role in all baseball and business communications for the Astros and supports initiatives throughout the organization. Gene has guided his staff through four of the last five postseasons, including Houston's first World Series Championship in franchise history in 2017 and it's AL Pennant-winning run in 2019.

In 2017, the Astros also received the Allan H. Selig Award for Philanthropic Excellence in recognition of the Houston Astros Community Leaders program. Additionally, Gene and his staff oversaw the Hall of Fame inductions of Craig Biggio (2015) and Jeff Bagwell (2017), who were the first two Astros ever to reach Cooperstown. The Astros' Communications team assembled far-reaching media campaigns for each player.

From 1989 to 2008, Gene worked for the Phillies, first as an intern in the ticket sales office before joining the Media Relations staff full-time. After serving as Media Relations Manager, he was promoted to Director of Community Relations in 2000, where he was instrumental in creating a number of community-based programs and events, many of which are still in place today. Gene also helped to grow the club's footprint in the community through increased media coverage and by increasing the dollars raised for the club's charity. He was also successful in increasing the player's community involvement and was a member of the Phillies Charities, Inc. Board of Directors. In 2003, the Phillies received the prestigious Philadelphia Sports Congress Community Service Award for the first time. Prior to joining the Phillies, Gene worked as a sports editor for Associated Newspapers in Stoughton, Mass.

Throughout his career in baseball, Gene has worked with Major League Baseball, assisting with the media relations duties at several World Series, League Championship Series and All-Star Games. Gene is also currently a board member for the Houston Chapter of the NAACP and volunteers his time to assist with the charitable efforts of the Astros Foundation.

Gene received his Bachelor of Arts degree in journalism from the University of Massachusetts where he was a member of the varsity baseball team. He and his wife Kandee live in Kingwood, Texas, with their two children, son Maxwell (19) and daughter Sydney (14). Maxwell is a freshman on the University of New Orleans baseball team.

Jason is a graduate of Texas Christian University where he earned a BFA in graphic design. He currently resides in West Houston with his wife and two children. Jason is a longtime Houston resident and Astros fan.

JEFF BAGWELL

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

Jeff Bagwell, who was inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame in 2017 and the Astros Hall of Fame in 2019, was one of the greatest sluggers of all-time. In his current role as a community outreach executive, Jeff is an active member of the Houston Community, making public appearances and acting as an ambassador for the organization.

Over his 15 years with the Astros, Bagwell hit .297 with 488 doubles, 32 triples, 449 home runs, 1,529 RBI with a .948 OPS (.408 OBP/.540 SLG) in 2,150 games. The four-time All-Star and three-time Silver Slugger Award winner was the first player in Astros history to be named the MVP of his league (1994), as well as the first player to receive a Rookie of the Year Award (1991). The franchise leader in homers, walks and RBI, Bagwell was also known for his elite defense at first base, winning a Rawlings Gold Glove Award in 1994. He is the only first baseman in MLB history to record a 30-homer, 30-stolen base season, which he accomplished twice (1997, 1999). Under Bagwell's leadership, the Astros won four division titles and made the playoffs six times, reaching the National League Championship Series in 2004 and the World Series in 2005.

Bagwell serves as a guest TV commentator for select Astros games and will join the AT&T SportsNet broadcast crew periodically throughout the 2020 season.

BILL BROWN COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

The 2020 season marks Bill Brown's 34th with the Houston Astros organization, and his fourth as a community outreach executive. Brown called his final games as the Astros primary TV play-by-play broadcaster in 2016 after 30 seasons in the booth.

At 18 years of age, Brown landed his first broadcasting job at KDRO Radio in Sedalia, Missouri doing news and play-by-play for local high school sporting events. He later graduated from the University of Missouri in 1969. While in the service, Brown became a U.S. Army broadcast specialist working as a sportscaster for the Armed Forces Vietnam Network in Saigon in 1970-71. After leaving the service in 1971, Brown earned a job at WLWT-TV in Cincinnati. In 1976, Brown earned his first full-time Major League broadcasting job as the television play-by-play announcer for the defending World Champion Cincinnati Reds, where he would remain until 1982.

On February 6, 1987, the Astros announced the hiring of the then 39-year-old Brown. Over the course of his illustrious career, Brown called several important moments in Astros history, including seven postseason appearances and the National League Pennant-winning season in 2005. Brown also called Jeff Bagwell's 400th career home run in 2003, the 2,000th career hits for Bagwell, Miguel Tejada and Carlos Lee and Craig Biggio's historic 3,000th hit in 2007.

As a veteran MLB broadcaster, Brown has been honored several times over the course of his career. The National Sportscasters and Sportswriters Association honored him with its Sportscaster of the Year Award in Texas for 2013, and he received the award in June of 2014 at a ceremony in Salisbury, N.C. Brown was presented with the Fred Hartman Award for Long and Meritorious Service at the 2012 Houston Baseball Dinner and was inducted into the Houston Media Wall of Honor in September 2011. He was honored by the Astros with a pregame ceremony in June of 2011, recognizing his 25 seasons with the club, and again in 2016 for his 30th anniversary. Brown was honored by the Texas Italian-American Sports Foundation, receiving an award for "outstanding accomplishments as a television broadcaster for the Houston Astros and community service". He was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on Nov. 12, 2004. Brown was also recently inducted into Smith-Cotton High School's athletic Hall of Fame in Sedalia, MO.

Brown is a member of the Advisory Board at Houston Sight into Sound and has been a volunteer reader for 24 years. He and his wife Dianne have been involved with "Salute to Our Heroes," a fundraiser for scholarships for the Cy-Fair Educational Foundation, for 10 years. Brown also sits on the Board of Trustees for the Cy-Fair Educational Foundation. Also, in 2018 Brown was invited to join the President's Council of KSBJ Radio.

Brown has authored and co-written several books. My Baseball Journey, A Sportscaster's Story, co-authored by Tim Gregg, documents Brown's career and personal influences (2012). Houston Astros: Deep in the Heart, co-authored by Mike Acosta, gives a pictorial history of the Houston Astros organization from inception to its 50th anniversary (2013). Breathing Orange Fire, Brown's first self-published book, documents the Astros 2016 season and two-time batting champion, Jose Altuve. Houston's Team, Houston's Title: 2017 World Champion Astros, tells the story of the Astros first World Championship title and the historic season that brought them there. Brown's latest book, Astros' Golden Era, is a detailed account of the Astros historic 2019 season, which includes memories of other historic Astros moments throughout the club's history.

Brown and Dianne reside in Houston. They have one daughter, Allison, and three grandchildren: Luke, Emma Kate and Caitlynn.

JOSE CRUZ

COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

The 2020 season is Jose Cruz' 37th with the Houston Astros, having spent five years as a special assistant to the general manager and the previous 13 seasons (1997-2009) as a coach for the Major League club. In his seventh year as a community outreach executive, Jose makes public appearances on behalf of the team and acts as an ambassador for the organization.

As an outfielder, the two-time All-Star had an 18-year Major League career, playing for the Cardinals (1970-74), Astros (1975-87) and Yankees (1988). Nicknamed "Cheo", Jose is an Astros icon and held franchise records in games, at-bats, hits, total bases and triples at the time of his retirement after the 1988 season. His 80 career triples remain the franchise record.

Jose holds the distinction of being involved with the first nine of the Astros postseason appearances, three as a player (1980, '81 and '86) and six as a coach (1997-99, '01, '04-05). He was the Astros Team MVP four times and hit .300 six times in his career while stealing 317 bases.

Jose's uniform No. 25 was retired by the Astros on Oct. 3, 1992, along with former teammate Mike Scott's No. 33. They were the third and fourth numbers retired by the team. In 1999, Jose was selected by a panel of experts as one of the three outfielders on the franchise's All-Astrodome team. In 2003, he was inducted into the Texas Baseball hall of Fame. On August 3, 2019, Jose was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame as a part of the inaugural class.

Jose and his wife, Zoraida, make their home in Houston and have four children: Jose Javier, Jose Cheito, Shakira and Jose Enrique. His son, Jose Jr., was the first-round selection (third player overall) of the Seattle Mariners in the 1995 June free agent draft. Jose Jr. graduated from Bellaire (TX) High School and attended Rice University. He led Bellaire to the number one national ranking by USA Today and was a finalist for the Golden Spikes Award while at Rice.

JIMMY WYNN COMMUNITY OUTREACH EXECUTIVE

Jimmy Wynn spent the first 11 seasons of his 15-year Major League career with the Houston franchise from 1963-73, the first two as a member of the Colt .45's. In his current role as a community outreach executive, Jimmy is an active member of the Houston community, working closely with the Astros Community Relations department and the Astros Foundation.

On June 24, 2011, the Astros and Minute Maid officially dedicated the Jimmy Wynn Training Center, a new, state-of-the art baseball facility located at the Astros Youth Academy in North Houston. The $500,000 indoor facility measures 4,431 square feet and includes batting cages, pitching mounds, locker rooms and showers. The facility, which was funded by Minute Maid's Grand Slam For Youth Baseball program and the Astros Foundation, is available for youngsters of all ages at no cost to their families.

As a player, despite his small frame (5'9"), Jimmy boasted enormous power and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "The Toy Cannon." He ranks among the top 10 in almost every significant Astros career hitting category and led the franchise in hits (1,291), home runs (223), and RBI (719) when he left the club after the 1973 season.

In 1967, the slugging center fielder finished second in the National League in home runs (37) while posting 107 RBI. He also became the first Astro to hit three home runs in a game. As a member of the 1974 Dodgers, Jimmy smashed 32 home runs with 108 RBI, finishing in fifth place for the National League Most Valuable Player Award. He also homered for LA in the 1974 World Series vs. Oakland. Jimmy was a two-time All-Star, making the NL squad in both 1967 and 1974.

Jimmy's No. 24 was officially retired by the Astros on June 25, 2005. Jimmy was also inducted in the Astros Hall of Fame on August 3, 2019, as a part of the inaugural class.

He and his wife, Marie, reside in Rosharon, Texas.

ASTROS COACHING STAFF

Y BAKER

Full Name: Johnnie B. Baker Jr. Opening Day Age: 70 Bats/Throws: Right/Right Born: 6/15/49 in Riverside, CA Resides: Granite Bay, CA

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, San Francisco Giants (1988); Hitting Coach, San Francisco Giants (1989-92); Manager, San Francisco Giants (1993-2002); Manager, Chicago Cubs (2003-06); Manager, Cincinnati Reds (2008-13); Manager, Washington Nationals (2016-17); Manager, Houston Astros (2020-present)

Bringing nearly 50 years of professional baseball experience to the job, Dusty Baker was named the Astros 19th field manager in franchise history on Jan. 29, 2020.

A three-time National League Manager of the Year (1993, 1997, 2000), Baker enters the 2020 season with 1,863 managerial victories, a total that ranks 15th all-time. He will move up that historical list this season, as he closely trails Bill McKechnie (1,896), Gene Mauch (1,902) and Casey Stengel (1,905) on this all-time list.

Houston is Baker's fifth managerial stop, coming to the Astros after time in San Francisco (1993-2002), Chicago (2003-2006), Cincinnati (2008-2013) and Washington (2016-17). An All-Star, Gold Glove, Silver Slugger, and World Series winner during his 19-year playing career, Baker has produced nine Postseason teams during his 22-year managerial career, including seven division championships (San Francisco, 1997 & 2000; Chicago, 2003; Cincinnati, 2010 & 2012; Washington, 2016 & 2017), and two wild card appearances (San Francisco, 2002; Cincinnati, 2013).

Baker does have World Series experience as a player, coach and manager, having played in the Fall Classic in 1977, 1978 and 1981 with the Dodgers. He later returned to the World Series as a coach for the 1989 Giants World Series team. Baker then managed the 2002 San Francisco Giants to the World Series, clinching the National League pennant over the St. Louis Cardinals in five games, before falling in seven games to the Anaheim Angels.

He finished his Giants managerial career with 840 victories in San Francisco, which ranks third in club history. Following his stint with the Giants, Baker served as Cubs manager for four seasons (2003-06), where he enjoyed early success as well. Despite inheriting a club that had finished with a 67-95 record the previous season, Baker guided the Cubs to the NL Central Division title in 2003 with an 88-74 mark. That club would ultimately fall just one win shy of reaching the World Series, falling to the Marlins in the NLCS in seven games. His 2003-04 Cubs teams were the first to post back-to-back winning records in Chicago since 1971-72.

A successful six-year stint in Cincinnati would follow, as he guided the Reds to three playoff appearances, including two NL Central Division titles. In his last stint as a manager with the Nationals (2016-17), Baker won backto-back NL East titles, became one of just three managers in MLB history to take four different teams to the playoffs, joining only Davey Johnson and Billy Martin, in the elite managerial company. A trip to the postseason this season would make Baker the first manager to take five different teams to the playoffs in Major League history.

Baker is also one of only two in MLB history to produce at least 1,800 hits as a player and win at least 1,800 games as a manager, joining Joe Torre on that list. A six-time All-Star (twice as a player: 1981 & 1982; three times as a member of the coaching staff: 1994, 1997 & 2001; once as manager: 2003), Baker brings a wealth of experience to the manager's seat in Houston. His teams have finished first or second 14 times in his 22 years, and Baker is just the 12th manager in MLB history to win 90-plus games on 10-or-more occasions (Elias).

A career .278 hitter, Baker tallied 242 home runs, 320 doubles, 23 triples, and 1,031 RBI over the course of his 19-year career (2,039 games) that included stops with the Atlanta Braves (1968-1975), Los Angeles Dodgers (1976-1983), San Francisco Giants (1984) and Oakland Athletics (1985-1986). Baker finished in the top 10 in MVP voting twice (1980 & 1981), and from 1980-82 he hit .303, averaging 20 home runs, 20 doubles and 78 RBI a year while earning two Silver Slugger Awards, a Gold Glove, and two All-Star selections.

Selected by the Braves in the 26th round of the 1967 free-agent draft, Baker made his MLB debut the following year (Sept. 7, 1968 vs. HOU), Baker solidified himself as an everyday player with the Braves in the 1970s, and found himself hitting fifth, behind Hank Aaron, during the 1973 and 1974 seasons.

Baker participated in the Postseason four times during his playing career (1977, 1978, 1981 & 1983), and played in three World Series (1977, 1978, 1981). He earned himself the National League Championship Series MVP award with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1977 (hitting .357 with a .438 on-base percentage an .837 slugging percentage, two home runs and eight RBI in four games against Philadelphia), and a World Series ring, playing left field for the 1981 Dodgers.

Born Johnnie B. Baker Jr. on June 15, 1949 in Riverside, Calif., "Dusty" Baker currently resides in California with his wife, Melissa, and has two children, Natosha and Darren. A 1967 graduate of Del Campo High School in Carmichael, Calif., Baker attended American River College in Sacramento, Calif.

ESPADA

Full Name: Josue Espada Opening Day Age: 44 Bats/Throws: Right/Right Born: 8/30/75 in Santurce, PR Resides: Jupiter, FL

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Third Base Coach, Miami Marlins (2010-13); Third Base Coach, New York Yankees (2015-17); Bench Coach, Houston Astros (2018-present)

Joe Espada was named the Astros bench coach on Nov. 6, 2017.

The 2020 season is his third with the Astros and his 10th overall on a Major League coaching staff. In addition to his day-to-day duties, Espada is in charge of infield positioning, a large task, as Houston shifts as much as or more than any other Major League team.

Espada came to the Astros after four years with the Yankees organization (2014-17), serving the last three as the Yankees third base coach (2015-17). The Yankees made the postseason in two of Espada's three seasons on the field, and were eliminated in both years by the Astros, in the 2015 Wild Card Game and in the 2017 American League Championship Series. In 2014, Espada served as a professional scout for the Yankees.

Prior to joining the Yankees, Espada had an eight-year run with the Marlins (2006-13), topping out as their third base coach for four seasons from 2010-13. He also served as the Marlins minor league infield coordinator (2008-09) and as a hitting coach for Class A Jupiter (2007) and Class A Greensboro (2006).

His coaching career followed a 10-year playing career (1996-2005), which started with Oakland as a second round pick in the 1996 draft. He would appear in 644 career minor league games, while splitting time with the Oakland (1996-2000), Florida (2001), Colorado (2001), Kansas City (2002), St. Louis (2003), Texas (2003) and Tampa Bay (2004) organizations. He also played two years (2004-05) of Independent League ball with Pensacola.

A native of Santurce, Espada has been active in Puerto Rican baseball in his career. He's twice served as the third base coach for runner-up Team Puerto Rico in the 2017 and 2013 World Baseball Classic. He also has experience managing in the Puerto Rican Winter League, as he led the Gigantes de Carolina in the 2014-15 offseason, and the Atenienses de Manatí in the 2012-13 offseason.

Espada is married to Dr. Pamela Espada and the couple has two daughters, Eliana Marie and Viviana Elena. He attended the University of Mobile (Ala.), where he still ranks among the offensive leaders in several categories, owning the school's top two single-season batting averages (.468 in 1995 and .446 in 1996) and top career batting average (.442).

BRENT STROM

Full Name: Brent Terry Strom Opening Day Age: 71 Bats/Throws: Right/Left Born: 10/14/48 in San Diego, CA

Resides: Tucson, AZ

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (1996); Pitching Coach, Kansas City Royals (2000-01); Pitching Coach, Houston Astros (2014-present)

Brent Strom was named to his current position with the Astros on Oct. 22, 2013.

Strom, now 71 years young for the entirety of the 2020 regular season, is well regarded as one of the best pitching coaches in Major League Baseball. He's praised as an expert in pitching mechanics with an ability to relate to pitchers of all ages and improve their performance through rigorous preparation and advanced game plans.

Strom's approach has led the Astros pitching staffs to 1,671 strikeouts in 2019 and 1,687 strikeouts in 2018. Those two numbers represent the two highest single-season strikeout totals in Major League Baseball history. His World Series-winning 2017 Astros amassed 1,593 strikeouts, which is good for seventh all-time.

In 2018, Strom's pitching staff was the best in the Majors, as they led the league in ERA (3.11), strikeouts, opponent average (.217), WHIP (1.10), starter's ERA (3.16) and bullpen ERA (3.03). Additionally, the 2018 Astros allowed just 534 runs that season, the fewest allowed by an AL team in a non strike-shortened season since the DH started being used in 1973. For his efforts, Strom was named Baseball America's 2018 MLB Coach of the Year.

Prior to rejoining the Astros in 2014, Strom spent six seasons (2008-13) with the Cardinals organization, serving as their minor league pitching coordinator (2012-13) and as a minor league pitching instructor (2008-11).

Strom first joined Houston's organization in 1989, serving as a minor league pitching instructor for seven seasons (1989-95) before being elevated to Major League pitching coach in 1996. Prior to originally joining Houston, he spent time as a minor league coach with the Dodgers (1981-86). Among his other stops, Strom has also served as a pitching coordinator with the San Diego (1997) and Montreal/Washington organizations (1998-99, 2002-06).

His coaching career followed a pitching career that spanned 12 years (1970-81), including five MLB seasons with New York-NL (1972), Cleveland (1973) and San Diego (1975-77). He also pitched two minor league seasons in the Astros system (1979-80). Strom is just the second person to have Tommy John surgery (performed in 1978).

Prior to playing professionally, Strom attended USC, where he helped lead the Trojans baseball team to two NCAA championships. In 1970, he was a First Team All-American in his final season at USC. His professional career began after he was drafted third overall in the secondary phase of the 1970 draft by the New York Mets.

Strom is a member of the International Sports Group (ISG), a non-profit organization founded to grow the game of baseball across the globe, and has been participating in ISG clinics overseas for over 18 years.

Brent and his wife, Carrie, reside in Tucson, Ariz. Carrie was crowned Mrs. America in 1979, representing New Jersey. The couple has three dogs, one English bulldog (Macie Mae) and two French bulldogs (Angus and Virgil).

ALEX CINTRÓN

Full Name: Alexander Cintrón Opening Day Age: 41 Bats/Throws: Switch/Right Born: 12/17/78 in Humacao, PR Resides: Houston. TX

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Major League Coach, Houston Astros (2017); First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2018); Hitting Coach, Houston Astros (2019-present)

Alex Cintrón was named an Astros hitting coach on Nov. 21, 2018.

This is his second year in the hitting coach role, but his fourth overall on the Astros Major League staff. He spent the 2018 season as the club's first base coach and assisted in infield positioning.

In 2017, Cintrón worked as the Astros Spanish translator, advance scout and assistant coach. In that role, he assisted the Astros Spanish-speaking players with all matters, while working with the club's advance information department and assisting the Major League coaching staff. Cintrón spent much of the 2017 season on the bench as an active coach, first for a three-game stint in July and later in September once rosters expanded.

Cintrón has spent his last two offseasons managing the Gigantes de Carolina in the Puerto Rican Winter League. He led his club to a 17-15 record this offseason and a second-place finish in the four-team league. Additionally, Cintrón earned the League's Manager of the Year Award in 2018.

Cintrón had a professional career that lasted 16 years, from 1997-2012, which included parts of nine Major League seasons. He was originally a 36th-round pick by Arizona in 1997 and would make his debut with the Diamondbacks in 2001. He played parts of five seasons with the D-backs (2001-05), before finishing his career in Chicago-AL (2006-07), Baltimore (2008) and Washington (2009). He's a career .275 Major League hitter, including a great 2003 season with Arizona, in which he hit .317 (142x448) with 51 RBI in 117 games.

Born in Humacao, Puerto Rico, Cintrón is a resident of Houston and has run the Cintrón Baseball Youth Organization in the city since retiring from playing in 2012. He has one daughter, Alexandra.

TROY SNITKER

Full Name: Troy Michael Snitker Opening Day Age: 31 Bats/Throws: Right/Right Born: 12/5/88 in Atlanta, GA Resides: Marietta, GA

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Hitting Coach, Houston Astros (2019-present)

Troy Snitker was named an Astros hitting coach on Nov. 21, 2018.

This will be Snitker's second season on a Major League coaching staff, but his fifth with the Astros organization overall. Prior to joining the Astros, he spent his 2018 season as the hitting coach at Double A Corpus Christi, where he was named the Texas League's Inaugural Mike Coolbaugh Memorial Coach of the Year, which is given to a Texas League figure who has shown an outstanding baseball work ethic, knowledge of the game, and skill in mentoring young players on the field.

Snitker originally joined the Astros in 2016 as the organization's rehab hitting coordinator and a coach for the GCL Astros. In 2017, he was the hitting coach at Class A Advanced Buies Creek and the next season, he was promoted to Corpus Christi.

Prior to joining the Astros, Snitker was a graduate assistant on the baseball coaching staff at his alma mater, the University of North Georgia.

The former catcher played two seasons in the Atlanta Braves minor league system (2011-12) before getting traded to Pittsburgh in 2013. He then played one season in the Independent Atlantic League (2013).

Snitker was drafted by the Braves in the 19th round of the 2011 draft after a highly successful two-year run at North Georgia. During his final season at the school in 2011, Snitker was named Peach Belt All-Conference after hitting .340 with a team-best six home runs and 44 RBI, while starting behind the dish in all 54 of the Saints' games.

Snitker has a bachelor's degree in exercise science and a master's degree in physical education. He is also a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist (CSCS) and is certified by the Titleist Performance Institute.

Troy is the son of Atlanta Braves manager Brian Snitker, and is a graduate of Brookwood High School in Snellville, Ga.

OMAR LOPEZ

Full Name: Omar E. Lopez Opening Day Age: 43 Bats/Throws: Right/Right Born: 1/3/77 in Valencia, VZ Resides: Orlando, FL

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, Houston Astros (2020-present)

Omar Lopez was named the Astros first base coach on Dec. 23, 2019.

The 2020 season is Lopez's first on the Astros Major League staff, but his 22nd season in the Astros organization. He joined the staff from Double A Corpus Christi, where he managed the Hooks for two seasons (2018-19), including a 2018 campaign in which he was named the Texas League Manager of the Year after leading the Hooks to an 82-56

Prior to his current post, Lopez managed in the Astros system for a total of 12 seasons, serving stints at Corpus Christi (2018-19), Buies Creek (2017), Quad Cities (2013-14, 2016), Lancaster (2015), Greeneville (2011-12), the Gulf Coast League (2009-10) and the Venezuelan Summer League (2008). In 2013, Lopez led Quad Cities to a Midwest League Championship title after an 81-57 finish in the regular season. That team featured 16 future Major Leaguers, including two current Astros in shortstop Carlos Correa and right-handed pitcher Lance McCullers Jr.

Additionally, Lopez was named the Manager of the Year in the Venezuelan Professional Baseball League for the 2014-15 season after guiding the Caribes de Anzoategui to a league-best 39-24 regular season record and an LVBP Championship title in what was his first year as the club's manager. As a 38-year-old, Lopez was the youngest manager in the league and became the third manager in the history of the Caribes club to win the prestigious award.

In 2010, Lopez earned the Astros Player Development Man of the Year award, as he was credited with guiding the organization's Spanish-speaking prospects through their first year of professional baseball in the United States. Prior to starting his managerial career in 2008, Lopez served as a hitting and infield instructor in the Astros Venezuelan program and was a full-time scout from 1999-2007. While in Venezuela, Lopez was one of the scouts who recommended that the Astros sign Jose Altuve, who was a 16-year-old free agent at the time.

A native of Valencia, Venezuela, Lopez played three seasons of minor league baseball with the Chicago White Sox (1996-97) and Arizona Diamondbacks (1998). He played his first professional season with Rookie Level Bristol in 1996, leading the club in walks over 55 games. In 1997 at Bristol, the third baseman hit .276 with 23 RBI while setting career highs in almost every category. He finished his career in 1998 with Arizona's Class A affiliate at South Bend.

Omar and his wife Helen reside in Orlando, Fla. They have two children, Omar Eduardo and Emily Gabriela.

GARY PETTIS

Full Name: Gary George Pettis Opening Day Age: 61 Bats/Throws: Switch/Right Born: 4/3/58 in Oakland, CA Resides: San Clemente, CA

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

First Base Coach, Chicago White Sox (2001-02); First Base Coach, New York Mets (2003-04); First Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2007-12); Third Base Coach, Texas Rangers (2013-14); Third Base Coach, Houston Astros (2015-present)

Gary Pettis was named the Astros third base coach on Oct. 17, 2014. In addition to his third base coach responsibilities, Pettis is the club's outfield and baserunning instructor. Under Pettis' guidance, Astros outfielders have combined to post the highest fielding percentage in the Majors from 2017-19 with a .991 mark.

Prior to joining the Astros, Pettis spent eight seasons (2007-14) on the Major League coaching staff of the Texas Rangers. He spent his last two seasons (2013-14) with the Rangers as their third base coach after spending six seasons (2007-12) as the club's first base coach. Over those eight years, Pettis also served as the club's outfield and baserunning instructor.

Pettis also served on the Major League staffs of the New York Mets (2003-04) and Chicago White Sox (2001-02) as first base and outfield coach. Pettis began his coaching career as a roving minor league instructor for the Angels (1995) and White Sox (1997-2000), and later had a two-year stint as Milwaukee's Triple A hitting instructor (2005-06).

The former outfielder was a five-time Gold Glove winner during his 14-year Major League career with the California Angels (1982-87), Detroit Tigers (1988-89, 1992), Texas Rangers (1990-91) and San Diego Padres (1992). He amassed 354 career steals and stole at least 40 bases five times during his career, which included a pair of 50-steal seasons. His Gold Gloves came in 1985, 1986, 1988, 1989 and 1990, which made him the fifth player in Major League history to win a Gold Glove with three different teams.

Pettis makes his offseason home in San Clemente, Calif., with his wife Peggy. The couple has two daughters, Paige and Shaye, and two sons, Kyler and Dante. Dante was a second-round pick of the San Francisco 49ers in 2018 after starring as a consensus All-American wide receiver at the University of Washington. He owns the NCAA record for career punt return touchdowns with nine, including four in 2017. Kyler is a model and actor, who appeared on the television soap opera Days of Our Lives for four years (2015-18) and over 124 episodes.

Full Name: Joshua Benjamin Miller Opening Day Age: 41 Bats/Throws: Right/Right Born: 2/7/79 in Melbourne Beach, FL Resides: West Palm Reach FL

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Bullpen Coach, Houston Astros (2019-present)

Josh Miller was named the Astros bullpen coach on Nov. 21, 2018.

This year marks his 14th season with the Astros and his second at the Major League level. Prior to joining the Major League staff, Miller spent the 2018 season as the organization's pitching coordinator. He also served as the Astros complex pitching coordinator for two seasons from 2016-17, overseeing the Astros pitching programs at their complex in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Miller began his coaching career in 2013 as a pitching coach at Rookie Level Greeneville, which followed a twoyear stint as a pro scout for the Astros. He spent three total seasons as Greeneville's pitching coach, helping to lead the club to an Appalachian League Championship title in 2015.

A veteran of seven minor league seasons in the Phillies (2001-2003) and Astros (2005-08) organizations, Miller was originally drafted by Philadelphia in the 32nd round of the June 2001 draft out of North Carolina State University. During his 10 combined seasons in the minors and Independent leagues (2004-05, 2009-10), he posted a 67-55 record and a 4.01 ERA.

Miller makes his offseason home in Debary, FL with his wife, Danielle, and their son Alexander.

QUALITY CONTROL COACH

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Third Base Coach, Milwaukee Brewers (2000); Third Base Coach, Arizona Diamondbacks (2001); Bench Coach, Oakland Athletics (2004); Third Base Coach, Chicago Cubs (2005-06); Bench Coach, Cincinnati Reds (2008-13); Bench Coach, Washington Nationals (2016-17); Quality Control Coach, Houston Astros (2020-present)

Chris Speier was named the Astros quality control coach on Feb. 14, 2020. Houston is Speier's eighth MLB organization as a manager, coach, or instructor, including time with San Francisco (1990-91), Chicago-NL (1995, 2005-06), Arizona (1996-99, 2001), Milwaukee (2000), Oakland (2004), Cincinnati (2008-13) and Washington (2016-17).

This will be Speier's fourth time to work with Baker, having originally joined Baker as his third base coach for the Cubs for two seasons from 2005-06. He went on to serve as Baker's bench coach at his next two managerial stops, five seasons in Cincinnati (2008-13) and two seasons in Washington (2016-17).

His other Major League stops include time as a third base coach for the Brewers (2000) and then Diamondbacks (2001), where he won a World Series Championship. He also served as the bench coach for the A's in 2004.

Speier played 19 years professionally, posting a .246 average with 302 doubles, 112 home runs and 50 triples in a career that featured three All-Star selections (1972-74), spanned stops in San Francisco, Montreal, St. Louis, Minnesota and Chicago and included three postseason appearances (1971, 1981, 1987). Selected by the Giants in the first round (No. 2 overall) of the secondary phase of the 1970 amateur draft, Speier appeared in 2,260 Major League games. His best season came in 1972, when he hit .269 with 25 doubles, two triples, 15 home runs and 71 RBI for the Giants. His best postseason came in 1971, hitting .357 during the National League Championship Series vs. the Pirates.

Speier lives in California with his wife, Katie. The couple has six children: Justin, Luke, Cole, Travis, Erika and Brittany.

MICHAEL COLLINS

Full Name: Michael John Donald Collins Opening Day Age: 35 Bats/Throws: Right/Right Born: 7/18/84 in Canberra, AUS

Resides: Phoenix, AZ

MAJOR LEAGUE COACHING CAREER

Major League Coach, Houston Astros (2020-present)

Michael Collins is in his third season with the Astros, this year serving as a Major League coach. He spent the last two seasons as the Astros catching coach and bullpen catcher.

Collins joined the Astros in 2018 after a seven-year stint (2011-17) in the San Diego Padres organization, including a six-year run (2012-17) as a minor league manager. He last served as the manager in the Arizona Rookie League, holding that post for three seasons overall (2013, 2016-17). He also managed in the Dominican Summer League (2012), at Class A Fort Wayne (2014) and at Class A Lake Elsinore (2015). While with Fort Wayne, Collins led his club to a division championship and earned the Padres 2014 Jack Krol Award for his contributions to player development.

Additionally, Collins managed his hometown Canberra Cavalry of the Australian Baseball League for six offseasons from 2012-18. In his six years on the job, he led Canberra to one Australian Baseball League Championship (2012-13) and to two second place finishes (2013-14, 2017-18).

Collins is a former player, having played 10 years in minor league baseball with the Los Angeles-AL (2001-08) and San Diego (2009-10) organizations. He topped out at the Triple A level in 2009 and 2010 but had his best minor league season in 2005 at Class A Advanced Cedar Rapids. That season, Collins appeared in 100 games, hitting .320 (116x363) with 32 doubles, seven home runs, 64 RBI and an .894 OPS.

Following his minor league career, Collins played two seasons (2010-11, 2011-12) for Canberra before taking the reigns as the club's manager in for the 2012-13 campaign.

A native of Canberra, Australia, Collins originally signed as a 16-year-old minor league free agent with the Angels in 2001.

JEREMIAH RANDALL

HEAD ATHLETIC TRAINER

Jeremiah Randall was named the Astros Major League Head Athletic Trainer on Nov. 9, 2015. The 2019 season will be his fifth atop the Astros athletic training staff.

He and his staff are recognized as one of the best in baseball, as the group was named the Major League Baseball Athletic Training Staff of the Year in 2017, an award that's given out by PBATS (Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society) and voted on by training staffs from throughout the league.

Prior to joining the Astros, he spent the previous three seasons with the Pittsburgh Pirates serving as the club's Major League Rehab Coordinator and Physical Therapist/Assistant Athletic Trainer.

Prior to joining the Pirates, Randall worked two seasons with the Los Angeles Dodgers, serving as their Minor League Rehab Coordinator in 2010 and as their Major League Physical Therapist for the 2011 season. In addition to his time in Major League Baseball, Randall spent time as an intern in the NFL with the Seattle Seahawks and New England Patriots. He has also presented at several national sports medicine conferences and has contributed as an author to various sports medicine and rehabilitation textbooks.

Currently, he is the principal investigator for the testing of several functional upper extremity assessment tools for use in the overhead throwing athlete. In addition to his clinical research, he has co-authored several case studies that are under peer review for publication in the American Journal of Sports Medicine.

Randall received his Doctor of Physical Therapy Degree in 2009 from the University of Miami (FL). He conducted research while at the University of Miami involving active military members and aided in the development of the Comprehensive High-level Activity Mobility Predictor (CHAMP). He received his undergraduate degree in biology from Tabor College in Hillsboro, Kan., and went on to the University of Kansas to obtain his athletic training degree. During his time at Tabor College, he was a three-year letterman in basketball and track and received all-conference honors in both sports.

Randall was born in Mound City, Kan. He resides in The Woodlands, Texas, with his wife, Kelly, daughter Aliann and son Declan.

LEE MEYER

ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER

Lee Meyer is in his second season on the Astros Major League staff as an assistant athletic trainer. He is a Certified Strength and Conditioning Specialist, a Licensed Athletic Trainer and a Certified Athletic Trainer.

Prior to joining the Major League staff, Meyer spent his last two seasons as the athletic trainer at Triple A Fresno (2017-18), where he was named the 2018 Pacific Coast League Athletic Trainer of the Year, as named by the Professional Baseball Athletic Trainers Society.

Meyer joined the Astros organization in 2017 from the New York Yankees, where he spent seven seasons working as an athletic trainer in the club's minor league system.

Meyer began his career in professional baseball at Class A Short Season Staten Island in 2010. He then went on to Class A Charleston (2011) before moving up to Class A Advanced Tampa for two seasons (2012-13) and Double A Trenton for three seasons (2014-16).

Meyer has also spent three offseasons as the head athletic trainer for the Cardenales de Lara in the Venezuelan Winter League.

Prior to landing a full-time position with the Yankees, Meyer served internships with the Rockies and Pirates, as well as the Indianapolis Colts of the NFL and Walt Disney World.

Meyer graduated from the University of Wisconsin-Stevens Point in 2008, receiving his bachelor's degree in athletic training with a minor in Spanish. He then earned his master's degree in sport management at Minnesota State University, Mankato in 2009. In 2016, he received a Distinguished Alumni award from his alma mater, UW-Stevens Point.

A Beaver, Wis., native, Meyer has completed multiple IRONMAN races over the years, raising over $10,000 in charitable donations. He now resides in Missouri City with his wife, Claudia, and dog, Lambeau.

SAM BELL ASSISTANT ATHLETIC TRAINER / PHYSICAL THERAPIST

Sam Bell joined the Astros medical staff in 2019 and serves a dual role of athletic trainer and team physical therapist. Prior to joining the Astros, he spent the last six years (2012-18) as a physical therapist and assistant athletic trainer with the Baltimore Ravens, which included their 2012-13 Super Bowl Championship season.

Bell is a certified doctor, having received his doctorate of physical therapy from Columbia University in 2012, his masters in athletic training from West Virginia in 2009 and his bachelors in athletic training from Purdue in 2006.

While earning his degrees, Bell had ample experience in professional sports, including spending time with the 2012 Pittsburgh Pirates (school rotation), the 2006-07 Miami Dolphins (staff assistant athletic trainer) and the 2004-05 Tampa Bay Buccaneers (athletic training summer intern).

Collegiately, Bell served as a graduate assistant athletic trainer for West Virginia from 2007-09 and as a student athletic trainer for Purdue from 2002-06.

Bell resides in Houston, with his wife, Amanda, and son Sammy. They spend their time biking, hiking, camping and surfing.

BRENDAN VERNER

MAJOR LEAGUE STRENGTH AND CONDITIONING COACH

Brendan Verner is in his third season as the Astros Major League strength and conditioning coach. This is his eighth season overall with the organization, as he spent the previous five years as the Astros strength and conditioning coordinator (2013-17) prior to joining the Major League staff in 2018. In that role, he worked out of the Astros Spring Training complex, while making trips to the Astros minor league affiliates.

Prior to his time with the Astros, Verner served as the assistant strength and conditioning coordinator at the minor league level for San Diego from 2011-12.

Verner spent two seasons as Cleveland's assistant strength and conditioning coach at the Major League level from 2007-08, where he assisted in coordinating the strength and conditioning evaluations of all minor league and Major League players. He also spent four years working as a strength and conditioning coach in the Cleveland and Pittsburgh minor league systems.

Verner graduated from Cleveland State University in 2007 with a Master of Arts in exercise science, and received his Bachelor of Arts degree in P.E. and exercise science in 2004 from John Carroll University. He is a certified strength and conditioning specialist (CSCS), a registered strength and conditioning coach (RSCC) and a member of the National Strength and Conditioning Association (NSCA).

TAYLOR RHOADES

ASSISTANT STRENGTH COACH

Taylor Rhoades joins the Astros Major League staff this season as the club's Assistant Strength & Conditioning Coach.

He spent his last six years in the Astros minor league system, most recently serving as the club's Assistant minor league Strength and Conditioning Coordinator for two seasons (2018-19), working out of the Astros Spring Training complex in West Palm Beach, Fla.

Rhoades originally joined the Astros in 2014 as the Strength and Conditioning Coach for the Class A Short Season Tri-City ValleyCats. He then moved up to Class A Advanced Lancaster in 2015, where he was named the Astros Strength and Conditioning Coach of the Year. Rhoades then served as the Strength and Conditioning Coach for Double A Corpus Christi in 2016 and Triple A Fresno in 2017.

Rhoades, who played on the baseball team at Bowling Green State University, spent six months working as a graduate assistant in the university's strength and conditioning department, where he worked mainly with the Olympic sport athletes. Rhoades also spent two summers working for the Class A Kane County Cougars of the Midwest League.

SPRING TRAINING

KATSUMI OKA

MASSAGE THERAPIST

Katsumi Oka has been the Astros massage therapist since the 2008 season.

Prior to joining the Astros, he had spent his previous 15 years as the director of the Ichigaya Branch of the Miyagawa Bonesetter's Office in Hyogo, Japan. Before taking over as the director, he spent 10 years with the office as a certified professional massage therapist.

Oka is a graduate of the Meiji School of Oriental Medicine in Osaka, Japan, and is a native of Hyogo, Japan.

JAVIER BRACAMONTE

BULLPEN CATCHER

Javier Bracamonte joined the Astros as a bullpen catcher in 2001. In his role, Bracamonte, who wears jersey number 85, travels to Spring Training and on every road trip assisting the coaching staff by catching bullpens, throwing batting practice and hitting infield practice.

During his time with Houston, Bracamonte has taken part in five MLB All-Star Games, including the last two as the batting practice pitcher in the Home Run Derby for Alex Bregman. He also took part in the 2004 All-Star Game in Houston, catching bullpens and working pregame activities. He would pitch batting practice in the next two All-Star Games, throwing to Andruw Jones and Jason Bay in 2005 in Detroit and to Miguel Cabrera in Pittsburgh in 2006.

A former shortstop and second baseman, Bracamonte played at the New York Yankees Venezuelan Academy from 1988-90, which made him just the third Venezuelan to sign a professional contract after serving as a bat boy in the Venezuelan Winter League. He would join the Astros organization in 2001 after five years of giving private baseball lessons.

Born in Caracas, Venezuela, he now resides in Houston, Texas, with his wife, Katie, and his daughters, Jaelyn and Jade. His son Gustavo currently works in the Miami Marlins ticket office.

CARL SCHNEIDER

CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Carl Schneider, who has been with the Astros organization since 1989, became the Astros clubhouse manager in 2011. While with the Astros, Schneider has worked 10 Astros playoff runs, four All-Star Games (1998, 2003-04, 2018) and three World Series (2005, 2017, 2019).

For his efforts in 2017, Schneider was named the winner the 2017 Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award (Clubhouse Manager of the Year), which is given out annually to a home and visiting clubhouse manager, and voted on by the MLB Clubhouse Manager's Association.

Schneider originally joined the Astros in 1989 as a bat boy and also handled clubhouse duties during the baseball season. He joined the home clubhouse staff full time in 1995 and would work in that role until assuming the clubhouse manager duties in 2011.

A Texas native, Schneider currently resides in Houston with his wife, Emilie, and their sons Zachry and Max and daughters Amie and Madyson. Schneider's oldest son, Zach, is currently a freshman left-handed pitcher at Truman State University in Missouri.

STEVE PERRY VISITING CLUBHOUSE MANAGER

Steve Perry has worked for the Astros organization since 1979 and has served as the visiting clubhouse manager

Over the years, Perry has developed a fine reputation in Major League Baseball for his work. He is a three-time winner (2000, 2008-09) of the Pete Sheehy Clubhouse Award (Clubhouse Manager of the Year), which is given out annually to a home and visiting clubhouse manager. The award is voted on by his peers within the MLB Clubhouse Manager's Association.

He also earned the Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service to Baseball Award in 2013, named by the Houston Chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America.

Perry joined the Astros as a bat boy at the start of the 1979 season, but by the All-Star Break was promoted to an assistant in the visiting clubhouse. He was named visiting clubhouse manager in 1989, and has filled that role since. During his Astros tenure, Steve has worked five All-Star games and 10 postseason runs.

Perry is fluent in Spanish, having spent several years of his childhood in South America after his father was relocated for work. He and his wife, Jessica, reside in Houston and have two daughters, Nicole and Amanda.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- Towering left-handed hitter burst onto the scene in 2019, being named the BBWAA American League Rookie of the Year and to the Second-Team All-MLB squad...became just the third player in franchise history to win the Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year Award, joining first baseman Jeff Bagwell, who won the National League award in 1991 and shortstop Carlos Correa, who won the American League award in 2015...he also became the fifth Cuban native to win the Rookie of the Year, joining Tony Oliva (1964), José Canseco (1986), José Fernández (2013) and Jose Abreu (2014).
- Posted 27 home runs and a 1.067 OPS in 87 games in 2019...the 27 homers established a franchise rookie record...his 1.067 OPS established a Major League record for OPS by a rookie in a single season (min. 350PA, 1.067), besting Shoeless Joe Jackson, who posted a 1.058 OPS in 1911.
- Homered in his first Major League game on June 9 vs. BAL off RHP Dylan Bundy, becoming the seventh player in franchise history to homer in his MLB debut....hit a 1-0 changeup to center field in what was his second plate appearance...hit three homers with seven RBI on Aug. 10 at BAL, marking the 14th three-homer game in club history (13th in the regular season) and the first in the regular season since Carlos Lee's three-homer game on April 13, 2007 at PHI...became the youngest player in MLB history (2 years, 44 days old) with three homers and seven RBI in a game, surpassing Pat Seerey (July 13, 1945 at 22 years, 118 days old).
- Went 3x3 with a two-run homer in Game 5 of the 2019 World Series, becoming the youngest Cubanborn player to homer in the World Series, surpassing Jose Canseco...also became the fourth-youngest AL player to homer in a World Series game behind Mickey Mantle, Jimmie Foxx and Tony Kubek.
- Hit .311 (288x927) with 56 doubles, four triples, 56 homers, 218 RBI and a .956 OPS (.395 OBP/.561 SLG) in 250 minor league games in four years prior to his MLB debut.
- Played in the SiriusXM All-Star Futures Game in 2017 and 2018...went 1x3 with a walk in the 2018 Futures Game...went 1x1 with an RBI in the 2017 Futures Game.
- Was a Midwest League Midseason All-Star in 2017 after batting .360 (40x111) with a 1.125 OPS (.468 OBP/.658 SLG) at Class A Quad Cities.
- · Played for Las Tunas in Cuba's Serie Nacional from 2013-15...in his final season in Cuba, hit .351 (39x111) with

NOTES

- After defecting from Cuba, Alvarez established residency in Haliti before signing with the Dodgers as an international free agent on June 15, 2016... signed by Dodgers scouts Ismael Cruz and Mike Toscar.
- Spent less than two months in the Dodgers organization and did not play in a professional game with them before being acquired by Houston in exchange for hard-throwing reliever Josh Fields... Fields posted a 2.61 ERA in three seasons with Los Angeles while Alvarez blossomed into one of the top prospects in baseball before debuting in 2019.
- Astros scouts credited with the identification of Alvarez include the club's Senior Scouting Advisor Charlie Gonzalez and Astros International Director Oz Ocampo.
- Shares the same clubhouse with fellow Cubans 1B Yuli Gurriel and IF Aledmys Diaz...grew up idolizing Gurriel, who was a star in the Cuban league during Alvarez's childhood...the two first met in Haiti while both were establishing residency prior to a move to the United States.
- Along with Gurriel, Díaz, Rogelio Armenteros and Cionel Perez, Alvarez was one of five Cubans to play for the 2019 Astros...that club became the first team to play five Cubans in the same season since the 1969 Reds used IF Mike de la Hoz, RHP Camilo Pascual, IF Tony Perez, RHP Pedro Ramos and IF Chico Ruiz.
- Became the first Astro to hit a homer in the third deck at Minute Maid Park on Sept. 9, 2019, a towering blast off A's RHP Paul Blackburn...that shot landed in section 337, row 1, seat 18, which was commemorated with an orange seat in 2019.
- This season marks just his second time to be at Major League Spring Training...was an NRI in 2019... is currently signed to a one-year contract for the 2020 season.

a .402 OBP as a 17-year-old.

2019: At the age of 21, debuted in the Majors in June and authored one of the best rookie seasons in franchise history en route to being named the BBWAA American League Rookie of the Year, the Sporting News AL Rookie of the Year and the MLBPA Players Choice Award for the AL Most Outstanding Rookie...also named to the Second-Team All-MLB squad...was one of the top hitters in the AL during his 87 games in the Majors...ranked among the top-10 AL hitters in multiple categories from the date of his MLB debut (June 9) through the end of the regular season; RBI (2nd), OBP (3rd, .412), SLG (3rd, .655), OPS (4th, 1.067), extra-base hits (5th), homers (T-6th), doubles (T-7th), batting average (9th)...established a Major League record for OPS by a rookie in a single season (min. 350PA, 1.067)...surpassed Shoeless Joe Jackson's record of 1.058 set in 1911...led all AL rookies in extra-base hits (53), OPS (1.067), OBP (.412) and SLG (.655) (min. 350PA)...set a franchise rookie record for home runs in a single season, topping Carlos Correa's record of 22 set during his 2015 rookie season...also set club rookie records for OPS, OBP and SLG (min. 350PA)...posted the third-best batting average by an Astros rookie (min. 350PA), behind Hunter Pence (.322 in 2007) and Greg Gross (.314 in 1974)...posted the second-most RBI by a rookie in club history, behind Jeff Bagwell's 82 RBI in 1991...was named the AL Rookie of the Month in June, July and August... became the first player in franchise history to win three consecutive Rookie of the Month awards, and the first MLB ALEX BREGMAN

Born: 3/30/94 in Albuquerque, NM

Opening Day Age: 25

Contract Status: Signed through 2024

Acquired: Selected in the first round (second overall) of the June 2015

Resides: Houston, TX ML Service: 3.070

NOTES

- Graduated from Albuquerque Academy HS in New Mexico in 2012...had a big junior season in 2011 as he was named first-team All-State and set a New Mexico season record with 19 home runs...was drafted by Boston in the 29th round of the 2012 MLB draft but opted to attend LSU.
- During his junior year at LSU in 2015, was a First-Team All-American, Gold Glove Award winner and a Golden Spikes Award finalist.
- Finished his career at LSU with a .337 batting average with 56 doubles, 10 triples, 21 homers, 148 RBI, 153 runs and 66 steals.
- Played in the 2015 Houston College Classic at Minute Maid Park for LSU and was named to the All-Tournament Team after hitting .385 (5x13) with a double and three steals.
- Drafted with the second overall pick in the 2015 MLB draft...that draft pick was awarded to the Astros for compensation for not signing the first overall pick in the 2014 draft (LHP Brady Aiken)... signed by Astros scout Justin Cryer.
- Chose his jersey number for a couple reasons, first to remind himself that he was drafted second overall, not first, second to only another collegiate shortstop out of the SEC SS Dansby Swanson (ARI)...secondly, he grew up admiring SS Derek Jeter, who wore number 2 for the Yankees for 20 seasons...this type of motivation is nothing new to Bregman, he chose number 30 in his freshman year at LSU to remind himself that all 30 teams passed on him at one point in the 2012 draft.
- IN THE COMMUNITY: Nominated as the Astros Roberto Clemente Award Winner for the 2019 season...Bregman is active in several charitable organizations, but focuses on his charity, AB for AUDS, an organization focused on raising money for children with autism and down syndrome, in honor of his godson Brady Columbus.
- Signed one of the largest contracts in Astros franchise history on March 22, 2019, a five-year deal that officially begins this year...the deal will keep Bregman in an Astros uniform through 2024.

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The two-time All-Star (2018-19), 2018 All-Star Game MVP, 2019 Silver Slugger Award winner and 2019 Second-Team All-MLB selection has hit .286 (545x1905) with 140 doubles, 11 triples, 99 homers, 320 RBI, 34 steals and a .911 OPS (.384 OBP/.527 SLG) in 517 games over four Major League seasons.
- Has a flare for the dramatic, as evidenced by his 10 postseason homers, all of which have been hit off former All-Stars: LHP Chris Sale (2x), LHP Clayton Kershaw, RHP Kenley Jansen, RHP Corey Kluber, RHP Trevor Bauer, LHP Blake Snell, RHP Stephen Strasburg (2x) and RHP Fernando Rodney...Bregman has joined teammate Carlos Correa and Albert Pujols as the only players in MLB history to record 10 postseason homers prior to turning 26 years old.
- In addition to his postseason power surge, Bregman reached base safely in a franchise-record 25 straight postseason games from Game 7 of the 2017 World Series thru Game 5 of the 2019 World Series...his streak tied as the second-longest in AL history and tied as the third-longest in MLB history.
- Joined Amos Otis (1980) as the only players in MLB history to record an RBI in each of their first five career games in the World Series, doing so in the 2017 WS.
- Over the last three seasons (2017-19), ranks third in the American League in WAR with a 19.5 mark (Fangraphs), trailing only Mike Trout (25.2) and Mookie Betts (22.4).
- Put together an MVP-caliber campaign in 2019 in what was his second consecutive All-Star season... named the Astros Team MVP by the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA, named a Second-Team All-MLB selection and won his first career Silver Slugger...became the fifth player in MLB history to reach the following totals in a single season: 41 homers, 119 walks, and 37 doubles with 83 strikeouts-or-fewer, joining Barry Bonds (1993), Ted Williams (1949), Lou Gehrig (1936) and Babe Ruth (1924, 1921)...led the American League in WAR (8.4, Baseball-Reference), the second-highest total by a position player in Astros history, trailing only Craig Biggio's 9.4 WAR in his 1997 season
- Had an AllI-Star in 2018, becoming the youngest player in franchise history with a 30-homer season (24)...led the Majors with 51 doubles (T-3rd in franchise history) and became the first third baseman in MLB history to record at least 30 home runs and 50

- Also in 2018, Bregman joined Lou Gehrig (1927) as the only players in MLB history to record a season with at least 50 doubles, 30 home runs, 90 walks and 10 stolen bases...set a club record by reaching base safely in 56 consecutive road games to end the 2018 season...marked the longest streak by any player since Derek Jeter posted a 59-game streak from 2006-07.
- Reached 100 doubles, 50 home runs and 200 RBI in what was his 342nd career game on Sept. 7, 2018, the fourth-fewest games to reach those totals by any Major League player in nearly a century...the only players to reach those totals in less games were Hall of Famers Ted Williams (341), Chuck Klein (317) and Hank Greenberg (315).
- Became the youngest third baseman in club history to start on Opening Day when he did so in 2017 at 23 years and four days old.
- Was named the 2016 USA TODAY Minor League Player of the Year...became the first player in Astros history to receive the award (created in 1988)...named the 2016 Astros Minor League Player of the Year, 2016 ESPN.com

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

- The 2017 All-Star and 2015 AL Rookie of the Year has hit .277 (573x2068) with 119 doubles, 102 home runs, 372 RBI, 33 steals and an .845 OPS (.356 OBP/.489 SLG) in 546 games across five Major League seasons.
- Is the first shortstop in MLB history to reach at least 15 home runs in each of his first five Major League seasons...his 102 home runs mark the third-most by a shortstop through his age-24 season in MLB history, behind Alex Rodriguez (189) and Cal Ripken Jr. (108).
- lis the Astros franchise leader in career home runs by a shortstop...also owns the single-season franchise record for home runs by a shortstop with 24, a mark he set in his 2017 All-Star season.
- Has been a tremendous performer in the postseason, hitting 11 doubles, 11 home runs and 33 RBI in 50 career postseason games (2015, 2017-19)...ranks first in Astros history in postseason RBI.
- Ranks second in MLB history in postseason home runs by a shortstop (11), trailing only Derek Jeter (20)...is one of three players in MLB history to hit 11 postseason homers before turning 26, joining Albert Pujols and teammate Alex Bregman...per STATS, Correa and George Springer have homered in the same postseason game on seven occasions, the most by any pair of teammates in MLB postseason history... they did so three times in the 2019 postseason, ALCS Game 2, ALCS Game 4 and World Series Game 5.
- Hit 21 homers in 2019 to give him 102 regular season homers...also posted a career-high .568 slugging percentage...became the youngest Astros player (24 years, 327 days) to reach 100 homers, and the fourth-fastest in terms of games (539g), behind only Lance Berkman (452g), George Springer (483g) and Glenn Davis (514g).
- Hit a walkoff solo home run in the 11th inning off J.A.
 Happ in the Game 2 of the 2019 ALCS...marked his second-career postseason walkoff hit, also Game 2 of the 2017 ALCS vs. NYY (walkoff double)...became the third player in MLB history to record multiple walkoff hits in the League Championship Series, joining David Ortiz and Bernie Williams...became the fourth Astros player to record a walkoff HR in the postseason, (last. Chris Burke in Game 4 of the 2005 NLDS vs. ATL).

- Posted a 70-game errorless streak from Sept. 21, 2017-June 6, 2018, a franchise record streak by a shortstop (previously 59 games by Roger Metzger).
- In 2017, became the first shortstop in Astros history to start an All-Star Game...during the 2017 postseason, matched a franchise record for RBI (14) and tied the MLB record for extra-base hits by a shortstop (10, also Rich Aurilia in 2002).

NOTES

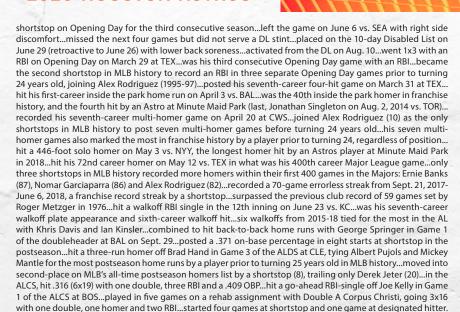

- Played amateur baseball at the Puerto Rico Baseball Academy in Gurabo, P.R., and was named a Rawlings First Team All-American in 2012, his final year at the academy.
- Drafted by Houston with the first overall selection in the 2012 MLB Draft...signed by Astros scouts Larry Pardo and Joey Sola.
- Became the highest-drafted player selected out of Puerto Rico all-time, a label that was previously held by catcher Ramon Castro, who was picked 17th overall by Houston in 1994.
- His 544 games played at shortstop are the secondmost by a shortstop listed as 6'4" or taller in Major League history...Cal Ripken Jr. (6'4") holds the top spot at 3,001 games.
- IN THE COMMUNITY: Is the driving force behind the Correa Family Foundation, which aims to provide transformative experiences and support to children affected by poverty or illness...each month throughout the season, the group names a CC1 Hero of the Month, which honors a selected group of children and adolescents who exemplify bravery, hope, and outstanding courage to overcome life's most difficult challenges...Carlos hosts these monthly winners at the ballpark with field passes, meet and greets and game tickets.
- Was in Puerto Rico this offseason when the island was struck by a 6.4 magnitude earthquake...Correa described the disaster as the scariest moment of his life...to help rebuild the devastation, his foundation started a Puerto Rico Earthquake Recover Fund, with proceeds befitting local schools.
- Is currently signed to a one-year contract for the 2020 season...is eligible for free agency following the 2021 season.

NOTES

- Was a three year letter winner at Gahr High School in Cerritos, Calif...was a two-way player as a pitcher and shortstop, but excelled on the mound, earning 1st Team All-League in the San Gabriel Valley League as a senior.
- Attended Golden West Junior College in Huntington Beach, Calif., for two years before transferring to Cal-State Fullerton...pitched one season for the Titans, appearing in 15 games.
- Drafted by Chicago (AL) in the 25th round of the 2011 MLB draft...signed by White Sox scout Mike
- Acquired by the Astros in 2012 as one of three pitchers received from the White Sox in exchange for RHP Brett Myers...Devenski was not named in the original trade, but came to Houston two weeks after the deal as the Player to be Named Later.
- Nicknamed "Dragon" by his Double A Manager Rodney Linares in 2015 after a mound visit in which Devenski insisted on remaining in the game... Linares complied, but on his way off the mound told Devenski to "unleash the dragon"...Devenski then complied and escaped the jam with a strikeout... Linares only referred to Devenski as Dragon for the remainder of the season.
- Speaking of nicknames, Devenski's go-to pitch throughout his career has been his changeup, dubbed the Circle of Death by teammates...it is a circle change, hence the nickname, which he was introduced to by a photo on a baseball card.
- Was added to the Astros Major League roster on April 7, 2016, for Game 2 of the 2016 season...has not been optioned to the minor leagues since that date...is currently signed to a one-year contract for the 2020 season, agreed to on Jan. 10, 2020...is under Astros club control through 2021.

- Tossed a 9.0-inning, 16-strikeout no-hitter for Class A Lexington on Sept. 1, 2012 vs. Rome...was the first individual no-hitter in Legends history...his no-hitter was named the Minor League Game of the Year by the MiLBY Awards.

JASON BELL

FUNDAMENTALS COORDINATOR
YEAR IN PRO BASEBALL: 4 / YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 4

Jason Bell enters his second year as fundamentals coordinator and his fourth with the Astros. In 2019, his first year as fundamentals coordinator, the Astros led all 30 organizations in overall fielding percentage (.975).

Bell joined the Astros as a development coach at Quad Cities in 2017, helping to push the club to a Midwest League Championship title. He then served his first managerial post at Class A Short Season Tri-City in 2018, and led the club to a New York-Penn League Championship title.

Bell joined the Astros from the University of Maryland Eastern Shore, where he served as the pitching coach for the Division I program during the 2016 season. As part of the coaching staff, Bell helped lead the team to its best winning percentage in over a decade. The club also set a record for the most non-conference victories in school history while getting out to the best start to a season in 22 years. Bell also filled in as head coach for a handful of games during the season, helping the club to its first conference win of the year.

Prior to his time at Maryland Eastern Shore, Bell was the Director of Baseball Operations at Ohio University in 2015 and a video scout at Baseball Info Solutions in 2014. While at Ohio University, Bell helped the baseball program to the second-best season in school history, which included a MAC Tournament Championship and an NCAA Tournament Championship berth. During that season, the Bobcats had the best year-to-year turnaround in collegiate baseball with a 25-game improvement, and also had the MAC Player and Pitcher of the Year.

Bell played collegiately at Saint Louis University (2010-11) and the University of Central Missouri (2012-14). He was named to the Atlantic 10 All-Tournament team as a freshman at Saint Louis, pitching in Game 2 of the NCAA Division I Tournament that year in the Louisville Regional.

Bell earned his bachelor's degree in 2013 from Central Missouri, before earning his master's degree in kinesiology - sports management from Central Missouri in 2014.

BILL MURPHY

PITCHING COORDINATOR
YEAR IN PRO BASEBALL: 5 / YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 5

Bill Murphy returns to the Astros for his fifth season, and his second as pitching coordinator.

Murphy joined the Astros in 2016 as pitching coach at Greeneville, before moving to Tri-City to serve as pitching coach for the 2017 season. In 2018, Murphy was the pitching coach for Double A Corpus Christi.

Prior to joining the Astros, Murphy served stints as the pitching coach at Brown University, and co-manager and pitching coach for the Northwoods Collegiate League Battle Creek Bombers.

In 2013, Murphy was a volunteer assistant coach at Georgetown University, and also coached in the Cal Ripken Collegiate League with the Rockville Express. Murphy was a full-time coach at Roselle Catholic High School from 2010-11 and 2012-13, which included stints as the varsity pitching coach. He has also coached at the American Legion level (2011-12), and in 2012 was an assistant coach for the Middlesex Rays of the Atlantic Baseball Confederation Collegiate League.

Murphy graduated from Rutgers University in 2010 with a bachelor's degree in psychology and a minor in history. While at Rutgers, he was a pitcher on the baseball team for three years. Murphy received his MBA in management from Wagner College in Staten Island, N.Y., where he played first base during his final year of eligibility. Murphy graduated from Roselle Catholic High School in 2007.

Murphy is zhealth certified.

JEREMY BARNES

HITTING COORDINATOR
YEAR IN PRO BASEBALL: 11 / YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 4

Jeremy Barnes enters his fourth season with the Astros and his second as hitting coordinator.

Barnes joined the Astros as hitting coach at Tri-City in 2017, and helped lead the club to a New York-Penn League Championship title in 2018.

Barnes played professionally from 2009-15 after getting drafted by the Phillies in the 11th round of the 2009 draft. He reached the Triple A level with the Phillies in 2012 before going on to play in three different Independent Leagues. Barnes played in the Australian Baseball League for three seasons (2012-13, 2015), the Canadian-American Association for two seasons (2013-14) and the Atlantic League for one season (2013).

Following his playing career, Barnes spent over two seasons working for ACT Baseball in Canberra, Australia, as manager of player pathway and coaching development.

Jeremy is a native of Rowlett, Texas. He graduated from Notre Dame in 2009, receiving his bachelor of arts degree in anthropology. Following his four years as an infielder for the Fighting Irish, Barnes ranked among the school's top 10 players in career batting average and fielding percentage. In 2009, he was the captain of the team and received Second Team All-Big East Honors. He was a Third Team All-Big East selection in 2006.

MARK BAILEY

CATCHING COORDINATOR
YEAR IN PRO BASEBALL: 36 / YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 30

Mark Bailey enters his 23rd season as a coach or instructor in the Astros organization, and his fifth as catching coordinator.

Bailey has been a mainstay in the Astros organization since beginning his coaching career as a hitting coach with the Class A Advanced Kissimmee Cobras in 1998. He has spent a total of seven seasons as a hitting coach in Houston's system, and from 2002-09 spent eight seasons as the Astros Major League bullpen coach, where he helped guide the club to the NLCS in 2004 and the World Series in 2005.

Bailey played in parts of seven seasons in the Majors with Houston (1984-88) and San Francisco (1990, 1992), and was part of the Astros NL Western Division championship team in 1986. His best season came in 1985 for the Astros, where he played in 114 games and hit .265 with 10 homers and 45 RBI.

Bailey was drafted by Houston as an infielder in the sixth round of the 1982 draft out of Southwest Missouri State, but converted to catcher in the minors. At SMS, he was a three-year letterman in both baseball and basketball. He was also a two-time Division II All-American and set career records with 146 RBI and 16 game-winning RBI.

Mark and his wife, Mary Pat, have a son, John Patrick.

2020 MINOR LEAGUE COORDINATORS

JESSE MICHEL

MENTAL SKILLS COORDINATOR
YEAR IN PRO BASEBALL: 4 / YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 4

Jesse Michel enters his fourth season as the Astros mental skills coordinator. In his role, Jesse works closely with the Player Development and Sports Medicine and Performance staff, coaches, players, and front office personnel to help develop the Astros Mental Training philosophy, and spearheads the effort to develop and implement a comprehensive Mental Training Program for the organization.

Prior to joining the Astros, Jesse spent four years as the Lead Master Resilience Trainer – Performance Expert at the Comprehensive Soldier and Family Fitness (CSF2) Training Center in Honolulu, Hawaii. The mission of CSF2 is to teach resilience, sport, and performance psychology skills to U.S. Army Soldiers, family members, and DA Civilians all over the world. In his role with CSF2, Jesse provided hands-on training and self-development tools so that members of the Army family were better able to cope with adversity, perform better in stressful situations, and thrive on and off the battlefield.

Jesse received his Ph.D. in Sport and Exercise Psychology from West Virginia University, where he served as the Mental Skills Coordinator for the Mountaineer Men's and Women's Swimming program from 2009-2013. In that role, Jesse was in charge of developing team and individual Mental Training Programs for Mountaineer athletes and coaches, which included NCAA All-Americans, Conference Coach of the Year Award winners, and United States Olympic Trial participants. Prior to his time at WVU, Jesse received his M.S. in Exercise and Sport Sciences at Ithaca College and his B.A. in Psychology at the University of California at San Diego. He is also currently listed on the United States Olympic Committee Sport Psychology Registry and is a Certified Consultant of the Association of Applied Sport Psychology (CC-AASP).

Jesse resides in Florida with his wife, Lt. Col Jennifer Sherman, United States Air Force, son Jace, and their dog Tinkerbell.

MICKEY STOREY

MANAGER, ROUND ROCK
YEAR IN PRO BASEBALL: 13 / YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 5

Mickey Storey enters his second season as manager at Round Rock, and his third season as a manager in the Astros minor league system. Last year in his first season at Round Rock, Storey led the Express to a division title, a berth in the PCL Championship Series, and the most wins in all of Triple A with 84.

Storey joined the professional coaching ranks as a development coach with Class A Advanced Buies Creek in 2016. He served his first managerial post in 2018 at Quad Cities.

Prior to coaching, Storey had a nine-year professional playing career as a right-handed pitcher, that spanned from 2008-16. Storey made his Major League debut with the Astros in 2012, posting a 3.86 ERA and 34 strikeouts in 30.1 innings and 26 appearances. Storey then made it back to the Majors in 2013 with Toronto.

Drafted by the Oakland Athletics in the 31st round of the 2008 draft out of Florida Atlantic University, Storey pitched in the minor league systems of the A's (2008-11), Astros (2011-12), Blue Jays (2013-14) and Dodgers (2015). In 2016, he pitched for the Somerset Patriots of the Atlantic League. LATIN AMERICAN HOME OF THE HOUSTON ASTROS

GUERRA, SANTO DOMINGO, DOMINICAN REPUBLIC

The Houston Astros celebrated their 25th season in the Dominican Republic on May 10, 2010, with the Grand Opening of the new Astros Latin American Home in Guerra, Santo Domingo in the Dominican Republic.

The Astros have had a presence in the Dominican Republic since 1985 when the club operated out of the Estrellas Winter League Stadium in San Pedro de Macoris. From 1987-2009, the Astros home in the Dominican Republic was at Ingenio Santa Fe where numerous future Major Leaguers played.

The new complex consists of two-and-a-half baseball fields, six pitching mounds, batting cages and an observation tower, along with other amenities. A two-story building contains locker rooms, manager and coaches offices, administrative offices, a dining room, full-service industrial kitchen, weight room, player and staff living accomodations, and a player entertainment room. In addition to developing young players and their baseball skills, the Astros new Latin American home also helps develop their educational skills and features a computer lab and classrooms.

The complex is located a half-mile from the new Tampa Bay and Los Angeles Dodgers facilities and in the same general area as other Major League Dominican Academies.

LATIN AMERICAN HOME STAFF

CARIDAD CABRERA

DIRECTOR, LATIN AMERICAN OPERATIONS
YEAR IN PRO BASEBALL: 11 / YEAR WITH HOUSTON: 11

Caridad Cabrera joined the Astros in January 2010 as the DR Academy administrator. She now enters her 11th season with the organization and her second year as Director, Latin American Operations. Cabrera oversees all aspects of the Astros Latin American development and operations in addition to overseeing the administrative aspects of Houston's Dominican academy. Caridad previously served in as Supervisor, Latin American Operations and Manager, Latin American operations.

Prior to joining the Astros, Caridad served as Analyst in the pledge's unit of the Dominican Ministry of Agriculture. Before that, she was an administrative assistant in EMC Abogados, handling all aspects related to human resources and payroll of companies and organizations, including baseball teams (outsourced service).

Caridad graduated, cum laude, receiving an engineering degree in computer systems from O&M, and holds a master's degree in business administration (senior management) from INTEC.

STEPHEN WRENN - OUTFIELDER

See non-roster bio

FINAL RESULTS: The Astros fell just short of their second Championship in franchise history, dropping the World Series in seven games to the Washington Nationals...this marked the Astros third trip to the World Series in franchise history (also, 2005, 2017).

POSTSEASON APPEARANCES: This year marked the Astros 13th time in the postseason and their ninth time as a division winner, as they won the NL West in 1980 and 1986, the NL Central in 1997, 1998, 1999 and 2001, and the AL West in each of the last three seasons (2017-19)...Houston is the only team in MLB history to win three different divisions and the only team in MLB history to win the AL (2017, 2019) and NL (2005) pennant.

ASTROS TOP RAYS IN ALDS: The Astros were pushed to the edge by the Rays in the ALDS, winning the series in five games...if an MVP was awarded for the series, it would have gone to RHP Gerrit Cole, who went 2-0 with a 0.57 ERA (1ER/15.2IP) with 25 strikeouts in his two starts...2B Jose Altuve also had a big series, hitting .350 (7x20) with three homers and five RBI.

V FOR VICTORIES: With his win in Game 1 of the ALDS vs. TB (0ER/7IP), RHP Justin Verlander recorded his eight career victory in the Division Series, which is a Major League record...the win moved him past LHP Andy Pettitte (7-4) and RHP John Smoltz (7-0) on the all-time list... Verlander is 8-1 with a 2.52 ERA in 13 career games (12 starts) in the Division Series.

ALTUVE AGAIN!: For the third straight postseason, 2B Jose Altuve homered in Game 1 of the ALDS, a two-run shot in the 5th vs. TB...he's just the third player in MLB history to homer in three straight ALDS Game 1s, joining J.D. Martinez (2014, 2017-18) and Jim Edmonds (2002, 2004-05).

IT'S A COLE WORLD: In Game 2 of the ALDS, RHP Gerrit Cole set a franchise record with 15 strikeouts in a postseason game, usurping a franchise record set by RHP Mike Scott (14K) in Game 1 of the 1986 NLCS vs. NYM...Cole also became the seventh pitcher in MLB history to strike out 15+ in the postseason, and the first since RHP Roger Clemens (15K) in Game 4 if the 2000 ALCS at SEA.

HOME RUN STREAK: The Astros homered in their final 25 regular season games and in their first five games this postseason, giving them a franchise record 30-game streak...this streak finished as the second-longest in Major League history, trailing only a 31-game streak set by the Yankees from May 26-June 30, 2019.

COLE'S ALDS: RHP Gerrit Cole totally dominated the American League Division Series, following up his record-setting Game 1 performance with an 8.0-inning, 10-strikeout, one-run outing in the Game 5 clincher...his 25 strikeouts in the series marked the most in a Division Series in Major League history... by recording 10 strikeouts in Game 5, he extended his Major League record streak of double-digit strikeouts to 11 games.

ASTROS WIN ALCS IN 6: The Astros defeated the Yankees in the ALCS in six games...2B Jose Altuve was named the ALCS MVP after hitting .348 (8x23) with two homers and three RBI, including a two-run walkoff homer to clinch the series in Game 6...the Astros wins featured two walkoff homers (also, SS Carlos Correa) and one dominant start by RHP Gerrit Cole (0ER/7IP)

CORREA'S WALKOFF IN GAME 2: The Astros and Yankees played a classic deep into the night in Game 2 of the ALCS with Houston winning on an 11th-inning walkoff homer by SS Carlos Correa, the first walkoff homer of his career...at the time, Correa became the fourth player in Astros postseason history to hit a walkoff homer, joining Alan Ashby (1981 NLDS, Game 1), Jeff Kent (2004 NLCS, Game 5) and Chris Burke (2005 NLDS, Game 4).

19 STRAIGHT!: RHP Gerrit Cole continued his dominance into the ALCS, winning Game 3 of the series after tossing 7.0 shutout innings, despite tying his career high with five walks...the win extended his winning streak to 19 decisions, which spanned 25 starts dating back to May 27...this is now the longest single-season winning streak in Major League history.

THE HIT MAN: 2B Jose Altuve hit safely in 13 straight postseason games, from Game 2 of the 2018 ALCS thru Game 4 of the 2019 ALCS...this streak is the second-longest in Astros postseason history, trailing only a 14-gamer by OF George Springer (2017-18).

ALTUVE'S HEROICS: ALCS MVP 2B Jose Altuve hit a two-run walkoff homer off LHP Aroldis Chapman in the bottom of the 9th inning in Game 6 of the ALCS to send the Astros to the World Series...Altuve is the fifth player in LCS history to send his team to the World Series with a walk off homer, joining Travis Ishikawa (Game 5 of the 2014 NLCS for SF), Magglio Ordonez (Game 4 of the 2006 ALCS for DET, Aaron Boone (Game 7 of the 2003 ALCS for NYY) and Chris Chambliss (Game 5 of the 1976 ALCS for NYY).

POSTSEASON POWER: 2B Jose Altuve, who hit a career high 31 homers in the regular season, had five homers this postseason to give him 13 career postseason homers, the most by a second baseman in MLB history...among Venezuelan-born players in the postseason, Altuve ranks tied for first all-time, along with 1B Miguel Cabrera (13 HR).

THE 2019 WORLD SERIES: The Astros lost the World Series in seven games, in a series that featured wins by the road team in all seven contests...this is the first time in 1,420 best-of-seven series in MLB, the NBA and the NHL that the road team won every game of a series...the Nationals won the series by winning all four starts made by RHP Stephen Strasburg and RHP Max Scherzer, to go along with timely hitting...the Astros offense excelled in the three road games, averaging 6.33 runs per game, compared to the 2.75 runs per game in the four games at Minute Maid Park.

THE SPRING CLASSIC: CF George Springer homered in five straight World Series games, from Game 4 of the 2017 World Series thru Game 1 of the 2019 World Series...this streak is a Major League record, breaking a tie with Reggie Jackson (1977-78) and Lou Gehrig (1928-32), who both homered in four straight World Series contests.

MAKING HISTORY: RHP Jose Urquidy became the third Mexican-born pitcher to earn a World Series win in Game 4 of the 2019 World Series, joining RHP Aurelio Lopez (1984) and LHP Fernando Valenzuela (1981) on that list...additionally, Urquidy became the seventh rookie starter to post a scoreless start in World Series history since 1969, joining RHP Walker Buehler (2018), RHP Yordano Ventura (2014), LHP Madison Bumgarner (2010), RHP Les Straker (1987) and RHP Gary Gentry (1969).

BREGMAN'S BIG SWING: 3B Alex Bregman hit the 20th grand slam in World Series history in Game 4 and the first by an AL player since Paul Konerko hit one for the White Sox against the Astros in the 2005 World Series...Bregman finished with five RBI that game, which ties the Astros postseason franchise record.

POWER BEHIND THE DISH: C Robinson Chirinos homered in Game 3 and Game 4 of the World Series, becoming the sixth catcher in MLB history to homer in consecutive games in the Fall Classic, joining Ted Simmons (1982), Gene Tenace (1972), Roy Campanella (1955), Bill Dickey (1939) and Mickey Cochrane (1930).

HOUSTON TRAFFIC: 2B Jose Altuve reached base safely in a franchise-record 25 straight postseason games from Game 7 of the 2017 World Series thru Game 5 of the 2019 World Series...his streak ties as the second-longest in AL history and ties as the third-longest in MLB history.

WEEKLY AWARDS: Four Astros earned an AL Player of the Week Award in 2019: OF George Springer (May 6-12), 1B Yuli Gurriel (July 1-7), RHP Justin Verlander (Aug. 26-Sept. 1) and RHP Gerrit Cole (Sept. 23-29)...Springer split his award, along with former teammate RHP Mike Fiers, who tossed a no-hitter for the A's that week...speaking of no-hitters, Verlander earned his Player of the Week Award after tossing his historic third career no-hitter on Sept. 1 at TOR.

TWO NO-HITTERS: The Astros tossed two no-hitters in 2019, on Aug. 3 vs. SEA (combined) and on Sept. 1 at TOR (RHP Justin Verlander)...the Astros are just the 18th team in MLB history to toss two no-hitters in the same season...they also came close on two other occasions, on Sept. 8 vs. SEA, in which RHP Gerrit Cole allowed just one hit, a solo homer, in 8.0 dominant innings, and on Sept. 25 at SEA, which saw RHP Zack Greinke take a no-hitter into the 9th.

#ALLSTROSGAME: The Astros were represented by six players at the 2019 All-Star Game in OF Michael Brantley, 3B Alex Bregman, RHP Gerrit Cole, RHP Ryan Pressly, OF George Springer and RHP Justin Verlander...the Astros were the only team in the Majors with six All-Stars this season, giving them three straight seasons with six All-Stars... additionally a franchise record four Astros started in Brantley, Bregman, Springer and Verlander... for Verlander, this marked his second career ASG start (also, 2012).

BREGMAN FINISHES SECOND IN MVP VOTING: 3B Alex Bregman made a strong run at the Most Valuable Player Award, ultimately finishing second in the voting to Angels OF Mike Trout...a few notes on Bregman this season:

among AL players, he ranked first in WAR (8.4), first in walks (119), second in OBP (.423), third in SLG (.592), third in OPS (1.015), tied for third in homers (41), fourth in runs (122) and fifth in RBI (112).

 he's one of three players in the Majors this season, to go 100+ in runs, walks and RBI, along with OF Mike Trout and OF Juan Soto ... in club history, he is one of three players to do this, joining Jeff Bagwell (6x) and Lance Berkman (2x).

the last two players to reach 40 HR and 110 walks with less than 90 strikeouts won the MVP Award: Albert Pujols (2009) and Barry

Bonds (2002-04).

he is just the fifth player in AL history with 40 HR, 110 walks, 35 doubles and less than 90 K's in a season...also, Frank Thomas in 1993 (AL MVP), Ted Williams in 1949 (AL MVP), Lou Gehrig in 1936 (AL MVP) and Babe Ruth in 1924, 1921, 1920.

his 41 home runs are the most by an Astro since Lance Berkman hit 45 in 2006...his 112 RBI are the most by an Astro since Carlos Lee had 119 in 2007...his 119 walks are the most by an Astro since Berkman walked 127 times in 2004...his 122 runs are the most by an Astro since Jeff Bagwell had 126 in 2001.

BREGMAN IN THE DERBY: 3B Alex Bregman was one of eight participants in the 2019 T-Mobile Home Run Derby...this marked Bregman's second consecutive appearance in the Derby and despite hitting 16 homers in the first round, he was eliminated by OF Joc Pederson (21 HR)...Bregman is one of five Astros to participate in the Home Run Derby, also Glenn Davis (1989), Hall of Famer Jeff Bagwell (1994, 1996-97, 1999), Moises Alou (1998) and Lance Berkman (2002, 2004, 2006, 2008).

CHEF G: Cy Young runner-up RHP Gerrit Cole finished his season on an amazing run...here are just a few of his accomplishments:

 he finished his regular season with a 16-game winning streak, a franchise record and the longest in a single season since RHP Roger Clemens also had a 16-game streak in 2001.

 he led the Majors in strikeouts (326), which is a franchise record, usurping a 40-year old record originally set by RHP J.R. Richard his 326 strikeouts are the most in the Majors since LHP Randy Johnson (334) reached it for the 2002 Diamondbacks...it's also the most strikeouts by an AL pitcher since RHP Nolan Ryan had 341 strikeouts for the 1977 Angels.

(313) in 1979.

he set single-season MLB record for strikeouts-per-9.0 (13.82), besting LHP Randy Johnson, who held the previous record for K's-per-9.0 (13.41) in his Cy Young 2001 season in ARI.

with 212.1 innings pitched, he tossed the fewest innings of anyone with 300+ K's... the last record was 213.1 IP by RHP Pedro Martinez in 1999.

he had 21 double-digit strikeout games this season, which led the Majors and was a club record...he's just the fourth pitcher in MLB history to have 21+ double-digit strikeout games, joining LHP Sandy Koufax, RHP Nolan Ryan and LHP Randy Johnson (3x).

in his final nine starts of the season, he posted double digit strikeout games, which is a Major League record.

SEARCHING FOR CY: Cy Young winner RHP Justin Verlander led the Majors in WHIP (0.80), opponent batting average (.172), wins (21) and innings pitched (223) and ranked second in the AL in ERA (2.58)...in the expansion era (since 1961), Verlander's WHIP was the second-lowest by a starting pitcher for a single season, trailing only RHP Pedro Martinez's 2000 season (0.74 WHIP)... Verlander also won the 2011 Cy Young and has three runner-up finishes for the award.

JV 3K: RHP Justin Verlander became just the 18th pitcher in MLB history to reach 3,000 strikeouts on Sept. 28 at LAA...here are just a few notes on his performance:

 he struck out 12 Angels that night, exactly the amount he needed to reach 300 strikeouts for the season, which is a career high.

 his 3,000th strikeout was his sixth on the night, a swinging strikeout of Angels RF Kole Calhoun, who reached first on a wild pitch... oddly enough, this marked just the third of Verlander's 3,006 strikeouts in which the batter reached first base.

 he's just the second pitcher in MLB history to reach 300 strikeouts for a season and 3,000 strikeouts for a career within the same game, joining LHP Randy Johnson, who did so on Sept. 10, 2000 at FLA, while pitching for the Diamondbacks.

 of the 17 other pitchers to reach 3,000 strikeouts, 14 are in the Hall of Fame and one is active, LHP CC Sabathia...Verlander is now one of five pitchers with 3,000 strikeouts to pitch for the Houston franchise, joining RHP Nolan Ryan (5,714), LHP Randy Johnson (4,875), RHP Roger Clemens (4,672) and RHP Curt Schilling (3,116).

 he reached strikeout number 3,000 on inning number 2,979.2 and in his 453rd game...per Elias, Verlander is the fourth quickest to 3,000 strikeouts by innings and the fifth quickest in terms of games.

EXCLUSIVE COMPANY: RHP Gerrit Cole and RHP Justin Verlander, who finished the season ranking first and second in the Majors in strikeouts, also finished their season ranking in the top five in franchise history in strikeouts for a single season...Cole's 326 strikeouts established a franchise record, while Verlander's 300 rank fifth all-time.

ASTROS STRIKEOUT LEADERS IN A SINGLE SEASON

 1. G. Cole (2019): 326
 4. J.R. Richard (1978): 303

 2. J.R. Richard (1979): 313
 5. J. Verlander (2019): 300

 3. M. Scott (1986): 306
 6. J. Verlander (2018): 290

THE 300: RHP Gerrit Cole and RHP Justin Verlander are the second pair of pitchers in Major League Baseball's modern era (since 1900) to each surpass 300 strikeouts in the same season, joining LHP Randy Johnson (334) and RHP Curt Schilling (316), who did so for the 2002 Diamondbacks...Cole and Verlander's combined total of 626 were the third-highest total for a pair of teammates since 1900, trailing only the 2001 season (665) and 2002 season (650) orchestrated by Johnson and Schilling.

ROOKIE LEADER: AL Rookie of the Year winner DH Yordan Alvarez hit 27 homers this season, which is a rookie club record...among MLB rookies, Alvarez ranked first in OBP (.412), SLG (.655) and OPS (1.067) with his OPS being the highest posted by a rookie in MLB history, besting Shoeless Joe Jackson, who posted a 1.058 OPS for the 1911 Cleveland Naps (min. 350 PA).

SECOND-HALF SURGE: 2B Jose Altuve led the American League in hits (93) and total bases (178) after the All-Star Break...his 21 second-half HR ranked tied for third in the AL and gave him 31 in 2019, a career high and the franchise record for homers by a second baseman, besting Jeff Kent (27 HR in 2004).

AIR YORDAN: DH Yordan Alvarez posted 78 RBI in his 87 games this season, which ranks as the seventh-highest RBI total thru a player's first 87 games in MLB history, trailing only Walt Dropo (95 RBI in 1950), Ted Williams (86 RBI in 1939), Joe DiMaggio (85 RBI in 1936) and three other players in Major League history...in Astros history, Alvarez's 78 RBI ranked second among rookies, trailing only the 1991 season by Jeff Bagwell, who collected 82 RBI in his 156 games played...Bagwell won the Rookie of the Year that season.

FASTEST TO 1,500: 2B Jose Altuve tallied his 1,500th career hit with a homer on July 28 at STL...Altuve reached the milestone in his 1,190th career game, which is the fastest in franchise history and the fastest by an active player, surpassing Albert Pujols (1,213th gm)...the last player to reach that total faster was Ichiro Suzuki (1,060th gm, July 29, 2007).

MR. 200: RHP Zack Greinke became the 115th pitcher in Major League history to reach 200 career victories this season, doing so on Aug. 18 at OAK... he became just the third active pitcher to reach that mark joining LHP CC Sabathia (251) and RHP Justin Verlander (225)...Greinke finished his season with the Astros going 8-1 with a 3.02 ERA (21ER/62.2IP) in 10 starts after his acquisition by Houston.

PIÑA POWER!: IF Yuli Gurriel hit 26 homers with 72 RBI in his final 73 games, hitting .338 (95x281) in that time frame...from the date this run started, June 23, through the end of the season, Gurriel ranked tied for first in the AL in RBI, second in batting average, second in SLG (.694), third in OPS (1.087) and third in homers...this run helped Gurriel set a career high with 104 RBI.

THE HOT CORNERS: 1B Yuli Gurriel (104 RBI) and teammate MVP candidate 3B Alex Bregman (112 RBI) are the first pair of Astros to reach 100+ RBI in the same season since Lance Berkman (106) and Carlos Lee (100) did so in 2008...Bregman and Gurriel were one of five pairs of teammates to reach the 100-mark in the Majors this season.

WILL POWER: RHP Will Harris, who pitched out of the Astros bullpen for five seasons (2015-19), had a career year in 2019, posting a 4-1 record with four saves and a 1.50 ERA (10ER/60IP) in 68 appearances...his ERA was tops in the AL by a reliever this season and set a franchise record for a single season, besting RHP Don McMahon, who posted a 1.53 ERA in 51 appearances for the Colt .45s in 1962.

YOUTH IS SAVED: RHP Roberto Osuna recorded 38 saves on the season, which led the AL and ranked sixth all-time in franchise history...he pitched the entire season at 24 years old and became the youngest pitcher in MLB history to reach 150 career saves...RHP Craig Kimbrel previously held that distinction at 25 years and 354 days old.

THE KING: RHP Ryan Pressly put together a Major League-record 40 consecutive scoreless appearances from Aug. 15, 2018-May 20, 2019, besting a 38-game streak by RHP Craig Kimbrel, set in 2011...within this run, Pressly also set a franchise record scoreless innings streak (39IP), which ties as the second-longest by a reliever in the expansion era (since 1961)...he tied RHP Brad Ziegler (39IP in 2008) and trailed only RHP Gregg Olson (41IP from 1989-90).

LEADING MAN: OF George Springer reached career highs in homers (39) and RBI (96) despite missing 27 team games to injury...of those 39 homers, 12 were leadoff shots, which led the Majors and finished one shy of the Major League record held by Alfonso Soriano, who hit 13 leadoff HR for the Yankees in 2003...Springer is the third players in MLB history to hit 12+ leadoff homers in a season, also Soriano (2x) and Brady Anderson (1996 with BAL).

TAG TEAM: OF George Springer (39 HR) and 3B Alex Bregman (41 HR) are just the second pair of Astros teammates to reach 35-or-more homers in the same season, joining 1B Jeff Bagwell (47 HR) and OF Richard Hidalgo (44 HR) in the 2000 season...Springer and Bregman are the only teammates in the Majors this season to hit 39-or-more homers.

REMEMBER BACK THEN: The 2019 Astros featured two players remaining from the 2013 Astros, which finished 51-111: 2B Jose Altuve and RHP Brad Peacock...additionally, C Max Stassi played in 31 games for the 2019 Astros before a midseason trade to Anaheim.

EXTRA SALAMI: On April 12 at SEA, the Astros hit two grand slams in a single game for the third time in club history:

DATE4/12/19 at SEA
6/8/14 at MIN
7/30/69 at NYM

PLAYERS
Jose Altuve/Yuli Gurriel
Chris Carter/Jonathan Singleton
Jimmy Wynn/Denis Menke

THE MEXICO SERIES: The Astros swept the Angels in Monterrey in the two-game Mexico Series from May 4-5, outscoring them 24-6...this series marked the Astros first regular season games outside the United States or Canada in franchise history.

CUBAN CONNECTION: When RHP Rogelio Armenteros made his MLB debut on June 14, he became the fifth Cuban-bom player to appear in a game for the Astros this season, also OF Yordan Alvarez, IF Aledmys Díaz, IF Yuli Gurriel and LHP Cionel Pérez...the Astros became the first team to play five Cubans in the same season since the 1969 Reds used IF Mike de la Hoz, RHP Camilo Pascual, IF Tony Perez, RHP Pedro Ramos and IF Chico Ruiz.

BACK-TO-BACK HOMERS: For just the seventh time in franchise history, the Astros connected for back-to-back-to-back home runs on July 19 vs. TEX with 2B Jose Altuve, 3B Alex Bregman and DH Yordan Alvarez turning the trick...overall, the Astros hit 13 sets of back-to-back homers on the season, the most they've ever hit in a single season, besting the 12 in 2000.

TRADE WINDS: The Astros made four trades at the trading deadline, July 31, acquiring C Martín Maldonado from the Cubs, RHP Zack Greinke from the Diamondbacks, and RHP Joe Biagini, RHP Aaron Sanchez and minor league OF Cal Stevenson from the Blue Jays...Houston also sent C Max Stassi to the Angels in exchange for two minor league outfielders.

THE COMBINED NO-NO: On Aug. 3 vs. SEA, RHP Aaron Sanchez (6IP), RHP Will Harris (1IP), RHP Joe Biagini (1IP) and RHP Chris Devenski (1IP) combined to toss the 12th no-hitter in franchise history...Sanchez, Biagini and starting catcher Martín Maldonado had all been acquired three days earlier, making this no-hitter especially unique.

23 RUNS!: The Astros downed the Orioles on Aug. 10 at BAL in a 23-2 final...the offense was historic on many levels:

 the 23 runs scored set a franchise record, besting a 21-5 win on Oct. 2, 2015 at ARI... it was also the most runs scored by a Major League team this season.

their 21-run win marked their largest in franchise history.

 the Astros 50 total bases set a franchise record and marked just the 16th time in MLB history for a team to reach 50 total bases in a game.

 the Astros 25 hits tied their franchise record, reached only twice before, both during the 1976 season.

17/0 300301

 SS Carlos Correa hit a 474' home run, the longest of his career and the longest hit at Camden Yards in the Statcast era (since 2015).

 DH Yordan Alvarez recorded career highs in home runs (3) and RBI (7)...he's the first rookie in club history to have a three-homer game and the second to have a seven RBI game, also C J.R. Towles on Sept. 20, 2007 vs. STL (8 RBI).

 Alvarez was also the first Astro to have a three-homer game in the regular season since Carlos Lee on April 13, 2007 at PHI...he's also the seventh-youngest player (22.044) in MLB history to have a three-homer game.

JV'S GEM: The Astros went old school for their second no-hitter as RHP Justin Verlander dominated the Blue Jays on Sept. 1 at TOR, fanning 14 in the outing...he became the sixth pitcher in MLB history with at least three career no-hitters, joining Nolan Ryan (7), Sandy Koufax (4), Bob Feller (3), Cy Young (3) and Larry Corcoran (3)...C Robinson Chirinos was behind the dish for Verlander's gem and for all 34 of his starts.

MR. IMMACULATE: RHP Will Harris tossed an immaculate inning on Sept. 27 at LAA, as he struck out the side on nine pitches...it marked the sixth in Astros history and the first since RHP Brandon Backe did so on April 15, 2004 vs. MIL.

ASTROS HALL OF FAME: The Astros Hall of Fame, presented by Houston Methodist, opened in March for the first time on the main course at Minute Maid Park...the inaugural Hall of Fame class included 16 former Astros players and personnel who were inducted in an on-field ceremony on August 6...2019 inductees included Bob Aspromonte, Jeff Bagwell, Craig Biggio, Jose Cruz, Larry Dierker, Gene Elston, Milo Hamilton, Joe Morgan, Joe Niekro, Shane Reynolds, J.R. Richard, Nolan Ryan, Mike Scott, Jim Umbricht, Don Wilson and Jimmy Wynn.

THE ASTROS CHARITY GAME: The Astros Foundation and AT&T SportsNet raised $500,000 during the fourth-annual Astros Foundation Charity Game and live broadcast, doubling last year's efforts... all funds raised benefited the Astros Foundation's Childhood Cancer efforts.

KNOTLESS NETTING: In August, the Astros replaced all lower bowl netting with knotless netting, which allows for an improved viewing experience for fans...the netting was also extended further down the left-field and right-field lines, increasing the number of seats that are located behind the netting.

THE HOUSTON OPEN: The Astros Golf Foundation was formed to operate the Houston Open with three key objectives: to ensure the PGA TOUR event remains in Houston, bring the tournament back to its glory and into the heart of the city, and provide much needed resources and funds to the citizens and community of Houston through park improvements, charitable fundraising and investing in youth... this year's tournament, which was held from Oct. 7-13, was the 72nd Houston Open and the 17th and final time the tournament would be played in Humble at the Golf Club of Houston, before moving to the newly renovated course at Memorial Park in 2020...proceeds from this tournament benefit the Astros Foundation.

MEDIA WALL OF HONOR: Franchise icon Larry Dierker was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor in a pregame ceremony on Sept. 22, which was his 73rd birthday and the 55th anniversary of his Major League debut, which came as an 18-year old for the Houston Colt .45s in 1964... Dierker had an esteemed broadcasting career, calling Astros games on radio and television for a total of 20 seasons (1979-96, 2004-05).

THE ASTROS REMEMBER

MAX EDISON: A well-know Houston sports Journalist Gifford Louis "Max" Edison Jr. passed away on his birthday, June 21, 2019, at the age of 63...Edison covered the Astros for the Houston Defender and was a fixture on local television and radio sports...when he wasn't covering live sporting events, Edison also taught at Elsik High School in Alief ISD...Edison was originally from the Houston-area, having graduated from Sweeny High School and later attended Sam Houston State University.

BOB GREEN: Former Astros radio producer and engineer Bob Green passed away in September at the age of 89...Green was the club's first radio engineer, joining the organization in 1962 and lasted more than 30 years with the club...he traveled with the ballclub on road trips and was a familiar face around the ballpark...former Astros broadcaster Gene Elston named Bob Green as the "Dean of National League Engineers"...Green helped build the new KPRC radio studios in Houston in the 1970s and he was responsible for setting up the "Globecast" linkage for the new Astros spring training facilities in 2002 in Kissimmee, FL.

animator who made a hobby of designing maps and replicas of the Astroworld theme park, Ed Henderson passed away Jan. 25 due to natural causes at the age of 95...Henderson was the original animator and creator for all of the famous Astrodome scoreboard cartoons that danced across the Astrodome's scoreboard in the 60s and 70s...he was also behind the Astros' first mascot, Chester Charge, only the second MLB mascot in the country.

BARRY LATMAN: Former Houston Astros pitcher Barry Latman passed away at the age of 82 in Richmond, Texas on April 28, 2019...during his career with the Astros, Latman posted a 3.49 ERA with 144 strikeouts and a 1.27 WHIP...

Latman pitched in the Majors for 11 seasons with Chicago-NL (1957-1959), Cleveland (1960-1963) Los Angeles (1964), California (1965) and Houston (1966-67)...in 1961, he was an All-Star selection as a member of the Cleveland Indians...during his career, he posted a 3.91 ERA with 829 strikeouts.

BRUCE MCMORRIS: A longtime member of the Astros organization Bruce McMorris passed away at the age of 69 on June 29, 2019...McMorris worked for over 30 years at the Astros Spring Training complex, first in Kissimmee, FL and more recently in West Palm Beach.

GENE PEMBERTON: Long-time Astros chaplain Gene Pemberton passed away on Jan. 27, 2019 at the age of 79... he began his time with Astros as the Director of Community Development before becoming the first full-time chaplain in Major League Baseball...Gene was a graduate of Temple High School and Temple Junior College in Temple, Texas...he also earned his bachelor's in Business Administration from Hardin-Simmons University in 1962.

HAL SMITH: Former Colt .45s catcher Hal Smith passed away on Jan. 9, 2019 at the age of 89... Smith was a member of the Colt .45s for two years (1962-63), where he smacked 12 homers and drove in 37 runs...Smith played for 10 seasons in the Majors including stints with Baltimore (1955-56), Kansas City (1956-1959), Pittsburgh (1960-61), Houston (1962-63) and Cincinnati (1964)...he won a World Series title with Pittsburgh in 1960....Smith finished his career with a .267 batting average, 56 homers, 148 doubles and 323 RBI.

ASTROS HALL OF FAME PRESENTED BY HOUSTON METHODIST

The Astros Hall of Fame presented by Houston Methodist was established in 2019, and resides in Hall of Fame Alley on the main concourse of Minute Maid Park in left-center field. The Astros Hall of Fame was created to give Astros fans an opportunity to celebrate and connect with the greatest individuals and moments in Astros franchise history.

The inaugural Astros Hall of Fame class of 2019 featured 16 individuals: the nine Astros with retired numbers, as well as the members of the Astros Walk of Fame located on Texas Ave. outside Minute Maid Park. Each member of the Astros Hall of Fame has their own custom plaque on display inside Hall of Fame Alley.

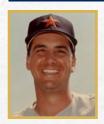

In 2020, the Astros will induct six new members into the Astros Hall of Fame. Those individuals are: Lance Berkman, Cesar Cedeno, Roy Hofheinz, Roy Oswalt, Billy Wagner and Bob Watson.

HISTORY AND RECORDS

ASTROS 2019 HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

14 • 3B BOB ASPROMONTE (1956, 1960-71) CLASS OF 2019

An original member of the Colt .45s franchise, Aspromonte took the first plate appearance in Houston franchise history, as he was the leadoff hitter in the club's inaugural game on April 10, 1962. Aspromonte recorded the first hit, run and stolen base in Houston franchise history, and was an Opening Day starter in all seven of his seasons with Houston. He established a franchise record for grand slams (6), and in 1965 he tallied 14 game-winning hits and a team-high 11 game-winning RBI. Aspromonte also recorded the first regular season homer by an Astros player in the Astrodome on April 24, 1965.

5 • 1B JEFF BAGWELL (1991-2005) CLASS OF 2019

One of two players inducted into the National Baseball Hall of Fame as a member of the Astros, Bagwell played his entire 15-year career with Houston, leading the club to six playoff appearances, four division titles and a National League Pennant (2005). He became the first player in Astros history to be named MVP of his league (1994), and was the first Astros player to win Rookie of the Year (1991). The franchise leader in homers (449), walks (1401) and RBI (1529), Bagwell was also an elite defensive player, winning a Gold Glove Award in 1994. He is the only first baseman in MLB history to record 200 steals and 400 homers.

25 • LF JOSE CRUZ (1975-87) CLASS OF 2019

Jose "Cheo" Cruz played 19 total seasons in the Majors, including 13 seasons with the Astros where he was a fan favorite. Cruz played in 1,870 games with the Astros, batting .292 with 335 doubles, a franchise-record 80 triples, 138 home runs, 942 RBI and 288 stolen bases. Cruz was a two-time All-Star and two-time Silver Slugger Award winner with Houston. In 1980, he finished third in the NL MVP voting and led Houston to its first-ever division title and postseason berth. Cruz spent 13 seasons as the Astros Major League first base coach and over a decade in the front office.

49 • RHP LARRY DIERKER (1964-76) CLASS OF 2019

In addition to pitching 13 seasons in the Majors with Houston, Larry Dierker impacted the Astros for over 40 years as a broadcaster, front office executive and as one of the greatest managers in franchise history. The franchise-leader in innings pitched, complete games, shutouts and starts, Dierker was a two-time All-Star, posting a 137-117 record and a 3.28 ERA in 345 career games (320 starts) with the Astros. Dierker became the sixth manager in MLB history to lead his club to a division title in his first season, and led the Astros to four division titles in his five seasons. In 1998, Dierker was named the NL Manager of the Year.

BROADCASTER • GENE ELSTON (1962-86) CLASS OF 2019

Gene Elston broadcast Major League games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-86. He was behind the mic for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt .45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster fo the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and MLB by his broadcasts. Elston broadcast baseball 47 years, and in 2006 was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball.

ASTROS 2019 HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

BROADCASTER • MILO HAMILTON (1985-2012) CLASS OF 2019

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, broadcast Major League base-ball for close to 60 years, including 28 seasons with the Astros. Hamilton was behind the mic for some of the greatest moments in Astros franchise history, including the club's National League pennant run in 2005, Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit, Nolan Ryan's 4,000th strike-out and six postseason appearances. Hamilton was also a tremendous ambassador for the Astros away from the booth, dedicating his time to numerous charitable endeavors and fundraising activities.

8 • 2B JOE MORGAN (1963-71, 1980) CLASS OF 2019

Before going on to win two NL MVP Awards and two World Series Championships with the Big Red Machine in Cincinnati, Joe Morgan kickstarted a Hall of Fame career with the Houston Colt. 45s and Astros from 1963-71. A two-time All-Star with Houston, Morgan finished second in the NL Rookie of the Year Award voting in 1965, winning the Sporting News Rookie of the Year award. Morgan returned to the Astros in 1980 and helped the club reach its first playoff berth and division title in franchise history. Morgan still ranks among the top five Astros all-time in triples (2nd, 63), OBP (3rd, .374) and stolen bases (5th, 219).

36 • RHP JOE NIEKRO (1975-85) CLASS OF 2019

The Astros all-time franchise leader in career wins with 144, Joe Niekro pitched in 11 seasons with the Astros as part of a 22-year career in the Majors. While the knuckleballer found moderate success prior to joining the Astros, he blossomed into a true ace with Houston. Over a seven-year stretch from 1977-83, Niekro was one of the game's elite pitchers, leading the National League in innings pitched (1,857) while ranking second in strikeouts (1,228) in that span. Niekro set a single-season franchise record for wins in 1979, going 21-11 with a 3.00 ERA while being named to the NL All-Star team.

37 • RHP SHANE REYNOLDS (1992-2001) CLASS OF 2019

Shane Reynolds led the Astros starting rotation during the final years of the Astrodome and the first years of Minute Maid Park, helping the Astros reach the playoffs four times in his 11 seasons with the club. An All-Star in 2000, Reynolds went 103-86 with a 3.95 ERA and 1,309 strikeouts in 274 career games (248 starts) in his Astros career. Reynolds led the NL in starts in back-to-back years from 1998- 99, and eclipsed 200.0 innings pitched in three out-of-four seasons from 1996-99. He won 19 games while posting a 3.51 ERA and 209 strikeouts in 1998, propelling the Astros to a second-straight division title.

50 • RHP J.R. RICHARD (1971-80) CLASS OF 2019

J.R. Richard was one of the most imposing pitchers of his era. In 10 seasons with Houston, he went 107-71 with a 3.15 ERA, 76 complete games, 19 shutouts and 1,493 strikeouts in 238 games. Richard won the NL ERA title in 1979 with a 2.71 mark over 38 starts while also setting a single-season club record for strikeouts with 313. In 1978, he became the first pitcher in franchise history to lead the Majors in strikeouts in a single season (303). Richard's 1,493 strikeouts are the third-most in club history. Richard was named to the NL All-Star team in 1980, but suffered a career-ending stroke on July 30, 1980.

HISTORY AND RECORDS

ASTROS 2019 HALL OF FAME INDUCTEES

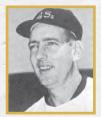

34 • RHP NOLAN RYAN (1980-88) CLASS OF 2019

Major League Baseball's strikeout king spent nine seasons pitching at the top of Houston's rotation, his most among any of the four teams he played for in a 27-year career. In 282 starts with the Astros, Ryan went 106-94 with a 3.13 ERA, 1,866 strikeouts, 38 complete games and 13 shutouts. The all-time franchise leader in career strikeouts, Ryan also owns the top career ERA in Astros history. A two-time All-Star with Houston, he led the NL in both ERA (2.76) and strikeouts (270) as a 40-year-old in 1987. In 1980, his first year with Houston, he helped pitch the club to their first National League West Division title.

33 • MIKE SCOTT (1984-91) CLASS OF 2019

Mike Scott pitched nine seasons with Houston, tallying a 110-81 record with a 3.30 ERA and 1,318 strikeouts in 263 games. He became the first pitcher in MLB history to throw a no-hitter in a clinching situation when he shut down San Francisco, 2-0, to help the Astros wrap up the NL West title on Sept. 25, 1986. Scott won the NL Cy Young Award that season after leading the National League in ERA (2.22), innings pitched (275.1) and strikeouts (306). A three-time All-Star with Houston, Scott became the first player ever to win NLCS MVP honors while pitching for the losing team in 1986.

32 • RHP JIM UMBRICHT (1962-63) CLASS OF 2019

Jim Umbricht was an original member of the Houston Colt .45s. He opened the 1962 season with the Colts and was one of the top relief pitchers in the NL, posting a 4-0 record with a 2.01 ERA. Umbricht was diagnosed with cancer in 1963, and made a remarkable comeback. Following a cancer operation in mid-March of 1963, Umbricht came back to the Astros and pitched in 35 games, making three starts, posting a 4-3 record with a 2.61 ERA. Umbricht died on April 8, 1964 at the age of 33. His number, 32, was officially retired by the Astros on April 12, 1965.

40 • RHP DON WILSON (1966-74) CLASS OF 2019

Don Wilson compiled a 103-92 record in nine seasons with the Astros, posting a 3.15 ERA with 78 complete games and 20 shutouts. He was named to the NL All-Star team and named the Astros Team MVP in 1971 after going 16-10 with a 2.45 ERA in 268.0 innings pitched. Wilson is the only pitcher to throw two no-hitters in a Houston uniform. On July 14, 1968, he established the franchise record for strikeouts in a single game with 18, eight of which were consecutive. He died on January 5, 1975, and his number, 40, was retired by the Astros on April 13, 1975.

24 • OF JIMMY WYNN (1963-73) CLASS OF 2019

Jimmy Wynn spent the first 11 years of his 15-year Major League career with Houston, the first two as a member of the Colt .45s. Despite his small frame (5'9"), Wynn boasted enormous power and a strong throwing arm, earning him the nickname "The Toy Cannon". In 11 years with Houston, he hit .255 with 228 doubles, 32 triples, 223 homers, 719 RBI and an .806 OPS in 1,426 games, the majority of which were played in the pitcher-friendly Astrodome. to the eventual World Series Champion Boston Red Sox in five games...despite their exit in the ALCS, Houston followed up their championship season with a franchise record 103 regular season wins, making them the first club to post consecutive 100-win seasons since the 2002-04 Yankees, and the fifth defending World Series Champion to win over 100 games dating back to 1970...Houston finished with the best run differential in the Majors at +263, which ranked second in the expansion era (since 1961) of Major League Baseball, trailing only the 2001 Mariners... the club went 57-24 in road games, also good for second all-time in the expansion era...en route to their 103, the Astros tied their franchise record win streak, ripping off 12 straight from June 6-18, which included a 10-0 road trip, marking just the seventh undefeated road trip of 10-or-more games in the Majors dating back to the 1953 season...the club's pitching staff combined for 1,687 strikeouts, the most in Major League history, and also allowed only 534 runs, the fewest allowed by an AL team in a non strike-shortened season since the DH started being used in 1973...the group also led the Majors in virtually every significant category, including ERA (3.11), opponent average (.217), WHIP (1.10), starter's ERA (3.16) and bullpen ERA (3.03)...RHP Justin Verlander led the staff, as the second-year Astro finished second in the AL in Cy Young voting... Verlander (290K) and RHP Gerrit Cole (276K) finished first and second in the AL in strikeouts and became the first pair of right-handed pitchers in the modern era (since 1900) to each surpass 250 strikeouts in a season for the same club...Verlander and Cole headlined a six-player group of Astros All-Stars, which also included 2B Jose Altuve, 3B Alex Bregman, RHP Charlie Morton and OF George Springer, who were managed and coached by the Astros Major League staff...Altuve was the Astros only starter, as he was elected to his sixth-career All-Star Game by leading all of Major League Baseball in fan votes with 4,849,630...the Astros shined in the Midsummer Classic, as Bregman and Springer hit back-to-back home runs in the 10th inning, to give the AL a victory and give Bregman the MVP honors...the Astros sold out Minute Maid Park 17 times in 2018, their most since 2007, which included six sellouts on dates in which the club distributed Replica World Champions Rings at Minute Maid Park...the Astros distributed over 250,000 replica rings this season, which is believed to be the biggest giveaway of a single item in Major League Baseball history.

The Astros captured their third pennant in franchise history, and second in a three-year span, falling just short of their second World Series Championship in seven games to the Washington Nationals...in the postseason, Houston defeated the Rays in a five-game ALDS and the Yankees in a six-game ALCS...during the regular season, the Astros set a franchise record with 107 wins, making them the fifth organization in MLB history to win 100-plus games in three consecutive seasons...the Astros led the Majors in run differential for the second consecutive season with a club record mark of +280...the Astros led the Majors with a 60-21 home record...the offense set a MLB record for slugging (.495) while posting the fewest strikeouts in the league...their pitching staff posted 1,671 strikeouts, the most in the Majors, making Houston the first team in MLB history to finish a season with the fewest offensive strikeouts and the most strikeouts by their pitching staff...the Astros won their third-consecutive AL West Division title by 10.0 games, going 56-20 against divisional opponents...at the trade deadline, the Astros executed a five-player deal that brought ace right-handed pitcher Zack Greinke to Houston...Houston tossed two no-hitters during the season: a six-pitcher combined no-hitter on Aug. 3 vs. SEA and Justin Verlander's third-career no-hitter on Sept. 1 at TOR...Verlander won his second-career AL Cy Young Award in a season in which he surpassed 3,000 career strikeouts, while reaching the 300-strikeout plateau for the first time in his career...Gerrit Cole finished second in the Cy Young race, setting a franchise record with 326 strikeouts...Yordan Alvarez burst onto the MLB scene in June, setting a club rookie record for homers (27) and becoming the third Astro to win Rookie of the Year honors...Alex Bregman led the offense, finishing second in the AL MVP race after leading the AL in WAR (8.4)...six Astros players made the All-Star team for the third-straight year (Verlander, Cole, Bregman, Michael Brantley, Ryan Pressly, George Springer)...Ryan Pressly completed an MLB record 40-game scoreless streak... Springer led MLB with 12 leadoff homers, one shy of the Major League record... the Astros Hall of Fame was created with an inaugural 16-member class...in May, the Astros swept the Angels in Monterrey, Mexico, their first regular season games played outside of the U.S. or Canada in club history.

ASTROS STADIUM HISTORY

Colt Stadium served as the home to Houston's first Major League Baseball franchise: the Colt .45s. The outdoor, single-deck facility was constructed as a temporary home until a domed stadium was completed. It was in operation for three seasons, from 1962-1964, and was witness to two no-hitters, both by the Colts: Don Nottebart in 1962 and Ken Johnson in 1963. High heat and humidity moved many games to late afternoon starts and pushed the National League to lift its ban on Sunday night games. It was located in what is now the Astrodome's north parking lot.

By the time the Astrodome opened on April 9, 1965, for an exhibition game between the Houston Astros and New York Yankees, it was already heralded as the "Eighth Wonder of the World." The largest structure of its kind and the world's first multi-purpose domed stadium, the Astrodome came to symbolize the futuristic home of professional sports in America. In honor of Houston's significance to the country's space program, it was appropriately named the Astrodome, and to maintain the theme, the Colt .45s were proudly renamed the Astros. AstroTurf was developed and installed to start the 1966 campaign after natural grass was unsuccessful. It served as the Astros home for 35 seasons.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually by the Baseball Hall of Fame to a broadcaster for "major contributions to baseball." The award, named after the late broadcaster, National League President, Commissioner, and Hall of Famer, has been presented annually since 1978. Frick was a driving force behind the creation of the Hall of Fame in Cooperstown and he helped foster the relationship between radio and the game of baseball.

The Ford C. Frick Award is presented annually during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony. Each award recipient (not to be confused with an inductee) is presented with a calligraphy of the award during the Hall of Fame Induction Ceremony and is recognized in the "Scribes & Mikemen" exhibit in the Library of the National Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (Astros broadcaster from 1962-1986)

Gene Elston's baseball broadcasting career spanned 47 years, primarily as a radio announcer. The 2006 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, delivered baseball to a new legion of fans as the lead voice of the expansion Houston Astros for 25 years, from their beginnings as the 1962 Colt .45s, through their 1986 National League West Division championship. While his voice became a beacon to fans in Texas and the Southwest, Elston's broadcasting responsibilities also included numerous national assignments. Elston broke into radio as a high school basketball broadcaster in 1941 in Fort Dodge, Iowa. After serving in the Navy during World War II, he returned to the small midwest stations he knew so well. His break came in 1945 when he handled color commentary for the National Football League's Cleveland Rams. His entry into baseball came in 1946, when Elston was hired to call games for the Waterloo White Hawks of the Three I League. Three years later, he was named play-by-play for Des Moines of the Western League. In 1954 he made the major leagues as the number two man for the Chicago Cubs. In 1958, Elston was chosen to work with Bob Feller for Mutual's Game of the Day, which aired over 350 stations across the country, a position he held through 1960. In 1961, as baseball was expanding, he was the first announcer to handle play-by-play duties for the Houston franchise. He went on to work the CBS Radio Game of the Week from 1987-1995 and CBS postseason games from 1995-1997. A Texas Baseball Hall of Fame inductee, Elston also created a unique scorebook, Gene Elston's Stati-Score Baseball Scorebook, and authored two books, including the 2001 release, A Stitch in Time: A Baseball Chronology, 1845-2000.

MILO HAMILTON (Astros broadcaster from 1985-2012)

more than 40 years. His big league on-air career included stops with the St. Louis Browns (1953), St. Louis Cardinals (1954), Chicago Cubs (1956-57 and 1980-84), Chicago White Sox (1962-65), Atlanta Braves (1966-75), Pittsburgh Pirates (1976-79), and Houston Astros (1985-2012). It was no coincidence that he was behind the microphone for more historic baseball events than any other announcer. His smooth style appealed to his listeners and his knowledge of the game has earned him the respect of his peers. Among the milestones he broadcast were Hank Aaron's 715th home run, Ernie Banks' fifth grand-slam of the 1955 season, seven no-hitters and Roger Maris' 61st homer (recreated on Western Union ticker). He was also on the Cardinals' broadcast crew when Stan Musial hit his record-breaking fifth home run in a doubleheader and he was doing the play-by-play 18 years later when San Diego's Nate Colbert duplicated Musial's feat. Wherever he has been, Hamilton involved himself in fund-raising activities, and over the years he helped raise over $1.5 million for local charities. Born in Fairfield, lowa, on Sept. 2, 1927, Hamilton graduated from the University of lowa with a degree in radio speech. Milo shared the broadcast booth with numerous other Frick Award winners, including Jack Brickhouse, Bob Elson, Harry Caray and Jack Buck.

Milo Hamilton, the 1992 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award, broadcast Major League baseball for

AL HELFER (Astros broadcaster in 1965)

Al Helfer, who was big in stature, big in personality and a big league mainstay in broadcast booths across the country for four decades, was named the 2018 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. The burly 6-foot-4 Helfer worked behind a microphone in the Majors for eight different clubs, the Pirates (1933-34), Reds (1935-36), Yankees (1937-38, 1945), Brooklyn Dodgers (1939-41, 1955-57), New York Giants (1945, 1949), Phillies (1958), Colt .45s (1962) and Athletics (1968-69), and gained a national following as a radio broadcaster for Mutual Broadcasting System's Game of the Day in the 1950's. For a five-year period between 1950 and '54, he was traveling to a different ballpark six days a week. A rewarding but exhausting assignment, it was due to this Game of the Day exposure – the broadcasts carried by approximately 400 stations in non-MLB markets and around the world by the Armed Forces Radio Network – which Helfer became one of the nation's best-known baseball broadcasters. It was said that his audience reached 80 million at times. In 1962, Helfer was a member of the Colt .45s original broadcast crew, along with other Astros greats, Gene Elston, Loel Passe and Rene Cardenas.

ASTROS FORD C. FRICK AWARD WINNERS

HARRY KALAS (Astros broadcaster from 1965-1970)

Harry Kalas, longtime announcer for the Philadelphia Phillies, was the 2002 recipient of the Ford C. Frick Award. A native of Naperville, Ill., Kalas graduated from the University of Iowa in 1959 with a Bachelor of Arts degree in Speech, Radio, and Television. The affable broadcaster was drafted into the military on graduation day and spent the following two years in Hawaii with the U.S. Army. In 1961, he served as sports director of radio station KGU and also began broadcasting for the Pacific Coast League's Hawaii Islanders as well as the University of Hawaii. An original member of the Astros broadcast team in 1965, he called games for Houston until 1970. In 1971, he moved to the Phillies broadcast booth, where he shared the microphone with Hall of Fame outfielder Richie Ashburn for 26 seasons. Kalas was honored as Pennsylvania Sportscaster of the Year 18 times. He also broadcast Big Five basketball and Notre Dame football. Kalas, revered for his uncanny ability to connect with his listeners, whether on radio or television, called more than 5,000 Phillies games. His passion for the game was unsurpassed, and his powerful, soothing voice was a summertime tradition throughout Pennsylvania, Delaware and New Jersey.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

Each season, the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor, located on the club level at Minute Maid Park, inducts a current or former Houston media member who has made significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through their work in journalism or broadcasting.

ANITA MARTINI (inaugural, 2007 inductee)

The inaugural inductee into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor was the late Anita Martini, a pioneer in the sports media field. Martini, a native of Galveston, was a pioneer for women in sports journalism. Martini began her career with Houston radio station KTRH during the 1960s and became the nation's first woman sports anchor in the early 1970s, at Houston television station KPRC. In 1974, she challenged Major League Baseball for the right to join her male colleagues in the clubhouse for post-game interviews with the players. Martini won her fight when she interviewed Jimmy Wynn in the Los Angeles Dodgers clubhouse after a game at the Houston Astrodome. By the 1980s, she was hosting one of the first call-in sports shows on Houston AM radio station KPRC. She died of cancer in 1993 at the age of 54. Martini also is an inductee of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame.

GENE ELSTON (2008 inductee)

Elston broadcast Major League Baseball games in Houston for 25 years as the Voice of the Astros from 1962-1986. He was behind the microphone for the first game in franchise history on April 10, 1962, when the Colt. 45s defeated the Chicago Cubs. Elston was the first play-by-play broadcaster for the Houston franchise, and a generation of baseball fans received their introductions to both the Astros and Major League Baseball by his broadcasts. Elston broadcast baseball for 47 years, beginning with Waterloo of the Triple I League in 1947. After hine seasons broadcasting minor league baseball, Elston made his Major League debut with the Chicago Cubs in 1954. He also called the Mutual "Game of the Week" from 1958-60 and the CBS Radio "Game of the Week" from 1987-97. In 2006, Elston was honored with the Ford C. Frick Award from the National Baseball Hall of Fame and Museum for his significant and lasting contributions to the game of baseball through his work in broadcasting. Among the highlights of Elston's career with the Astros included calling eight of the team's no-hitters, two Astros NL Western Division Championships (1980, 1986), and Nolan Ryan breaking Walter Johnson's all-time strikeout record in 1983. He was inducted in the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1993.

NEIL HOHLFELD (2009 inductee)

Hohlfeld covered the Houston Astros as the beat writer for the Houston Chronicle from 1979 until 1995. He served as president of the Houston chapter of the Baseball Writers Association of America in 1993. In 1996, Hohlfeld went on to cover other sports, including Texas A&M athletics and NASCAR, through 2006 before assuming an editing assignment for the Chronicle. In 2007, he returned to his first love as a baseball analyst for FS Houston's pre- and post-game shows. Hohlfeld graduated from the University of Missouri with a Bachelor of Journalism in 1973 and began his career in Hannibal, Mo. He worked for the Chicago Tribune from 1974-79 before joining the Chronicle in 1979. Hohlfeld passed away on July 19, 2008 at the age of 56. He was honored by the Houston chapter of the BBWAA as the recipient of the 2008 Fred Hartman Long and Meritorious Service Award.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

MICKEY HERSKOWITZ (2010 inductee)

Herskowitz was one of Houston's original beat writers and columnists, having covered the team since its inception in 1962. He wrote for both the Houston Post and Houston Chronicle. A graduate of the University of Houston, at age 26, Herskowitz became the nation's youngest sports editor of a major newspaper and later received international recognition for his coverage of the terrorist tragedy at the 1972 Munich Olympics. He was the first writer to win national first place awards in three Associated Press categories in one year, 1968. In addition to his journalism career, Herskowitz has authored books on historical figures, such as Gene Autry, Nolan Ryan, Paul "Bear" Bryant and Prescott Bush. He was also the ghostwriter of several autobiographies, including Dan Rather and Mickey Mantle. A former Marine, he has been inducted into the Houston Chamber of Commerce Hall of Fame, and received the national Headliners Award for excellence in sports writing. Herskowitz is also a former executive with the American Football League; a New York magazine editor; an original partner in the Houston Rockets; and a journalism professor at Sam Houston State University. He was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame in 1997.

BILL BROWN (2011 inductee)

Bill Brown was the Houston Astros play-by-play announcer for 30 seasons. Brown, also known as "Brownie," was inducted into the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame on Nov. 12, 2004. He joined the Astros in 1987 after working as senior producer and anchor of the Financial News Network's SCORE program. Prior to that assignment, he was the sports director of the Sports Time Cable Network, which televised select Reds, Royals and Cardinals games. He spent one year with HSE in Pittsburgh and was the television voice of the Cincinnati Reds from 1976-82. Brown, who began his broadcast career on radio at 18 years old, graduated from the University of Missouri in 1969 and became a U.S. Army broadcast specialist, working as a sportscaster for the Armed Forces Vietnam Network in Saigon from 1970-71. After leaving the service in 1971, Brown completed one semester of graduate school at Central Missouri State College in 1971 and then earned a job at WLWT-TV in Cincinnati. Brown has broadcast for two teams in the World Series, the 1976 Reds and the 2005 Astros. He also called Craig Biggio's historic 3,000th hit in 2007, as well as many other memorable moments during both his Astros broadcasting tenure and overall broadcasting career.

MILO HAMILTON (2012 inductee)

Hall of Fame broadcaster Milo Hamilton spent a total of 59 seasons broadcasting Major League Baseball, which ranked as the second-longest broadcasting career in the game's history. A member of the Texas Baseball Hall of Fame, Hamilton has also been recognized by the National Baseball Hall of Fame, having won the Ford C. Frick Award in 1992. As an Astros broadcaster, he called many of the greatest moments in franchise history, including Nolan Byan's 4,000th strikeout in 1985, the final out of Mike Scott's dramatic, division-clinching no-hitter in 1986, the Astros historic, six-pitcher, combined no-hitter at Yankee Stadium in 2003, the Astros 2005 Game 6 NLCS clincher, and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit in 2007. Prior to joining Houston, Hamilton had already established himself as a top broadcaster in the game, having called Hank Aaron's historic 715th home run on April 8, 1974. His career accomplishments also include calling games at 59 Major League ballparks, being behind the mic for 11 no-hitters and broadcasting for the Pirates during their 1979 World Series championship season. At the conclusion of the 2012 campaign, he retired from his position as "The Voice of the Astros", having established himself as one of the all-time great broadcasters in Major League Baseball history.

RENE CARDENAS (2013 inductee)

Cardenas, a native of Managua, Nicaragua, started his professional baseball broadcast career with the Los Angeles Dodgers in 1958, becoming one of the first members of a Spanish radio broadcast team in the history of Major League Baseball. In the coming years, Cardenas further made history as a pioneer, as he and his team became the first Spanish radio broadcast team to call a World Series (1959) and an All-Star Game (1961). Cardenas was brought into the Houston organization by Judge Roy Hofheinz in 1962 as the Director of the Spanish Division for the Colt .45's, and stayed with the Astros through 1975. He also spent time with the Texas Rangers organization, where he started their very first Spanish radio broadcast. Following his time in Arlington, Cardenas returned to LA where he did Spanish radio and TV broadcasts for the Dodgers in the 1980s. Cardenas returned to Houston in 2000 where he began writing for the club. He returned to Spanish radio broadcast in 2007 and in 2008, became a television broadcaster for the team. He now writes for La Prensa, as well as the Astros Gameday Magazine and La Voz. Among his many honors are a place in both the Texas Rangers and former LA Dodgers Walks of Fame, and three nominations for the Ford C. Frick award in 1993, 2010 and 2011.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

ALEX TREVINO (2014 inductee)

Alex Treviño became a distinguished member of the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Thursday, Sept. 18, 2014, in what was his 19th year in the Astros Spanish radio booth. He joined the broadcast team in 1996 and has called over 3,000 Astros games and six postseason appearances, including the 2005 World Series run. As of 2014, his 19 seasons in the broadcast booth were the second-most in franchise history by a Spanish broadcaster, trailing only Orlando Sanchez Diago's 21 years. Prior to joining the broadcast staff, Treviño spent 13 seasons in the Majors, primarily as a catcher, including the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros. He also spent time with the Mets, Reds, Braves, Giants and Dodgers in his Major League career. Treviño finished his playing career in the Mexican League, playing three seasons (1993-95) in his hometown of Monterrey, Mexico. Treviño was a member of the 1972 Pony League World Series championship team, which hailed from Monterrey. He later would become one of seven Mexican-born players to play for the Astros, and was inducted into the Hispanic Heritage Baseball Museum Hall of Fame in 2003.

HARRY SHATTUCK (2015 inductee)

Long-time sportswriter for the Houston Chronicle, Harry Shattuck, was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 23, 2015. Shattuck covered the Astros beat for the Houston Chronicle for several seasons. Shattuck worked in the newspaper business for the Houston Chronicle for parts of four decades from 1970-2009. He began covering the Astros in 1970 and served as the Chronicle's beat writer from 1972-1985. He moved on to serve as the Chronicle's national baseball writer (1985-88), the assistant sports editor (1989-93) and the travel editor (1993-09) before his retirement. In his distinguished career, Shattuck covered 14 World Series, was the former chairman of the Houston Chapter of the BBWAA and voted for the Baseball Hall of Fame for over 30 years. While on the Astros beat, Shattuck covered the team during the tumultuous change in team ownership in 1976 and during the Astros 1980's playoff appearances.

MARK BERMAN (2016 inductee)

On Monday, Sept. 26, 2016, long-time sports director at KRIV-TV Mark Berman was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor. Berman has spent over 30 years at KRIV-TV in Houston, having joined the Houston FOX affiliate in 1986 and being named the station's sports director in 1988. In his role, Berman covers all sports in the Houston area, including professional, collegiate and high school athletics. A leader in his industry, Berman is best known for his relentless work ethic, his professionalism and his accuracy in breaking stories. Since joining the Houston media, Berman has covered every Astros playoff team in franchise history (1980-81, 1986, 1997-99, 2001, 2004-05, 2015), including the club's World Series appearance in 2005. Berman grew up in Hempstead, Texas, and graduated from the University of Houston with a degree in communications.

BOB ALLEN (2017 inductee)

Houston sports anchor and director Bob Allen was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 17, 2017. One of the most iconic members of the Houston media market, Allen sadly passed away in October of 2016 after a lengthy battle with cancer. Allen spent 38 years as sports director at ABC13 News (KTRK) after getting named to the post in 1975, making him the longest tenured major market sports anchor in the country. He also spent two years as sports director at KHOU 11 News following his run with KTRK. During his career, Allen covered virtually all of the Astros postseason runs, all five ownership groups in the history of the Houston franchise, the construction and opening of Minute Maid Park, the Astros first appearance in a World Series and Craig Biggio's 3,000th hit and Hall of Fame selection. A native of Houston, Allen was committed to giving back to his community, as he was an enthusiastic supporter and board member of both the Sunshine Kids organization and the Special Olympics.

THE HOUSTON BASEBALL MEDIA WALL OF HONOR

KAREN WARREN (2018 inductee)

Longtime Houston Chronicle photojournalist Karen Warren was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 14, 2018, becoming the first photojournalist to receive this honor since the award's inception in 2007. With over 20 years as a staff photographer at the Houston Chronicle, Warren has covered some of the best years in the history of the Astros franchise and has become a fixture in the Houston media market. Since joining the Houston Chronicle in 1997, she has shot a multitude of Astros regular season and postseason games, and has traveled to Spring Training in Florida to cover the team for close to 20 seasons. In addition to her coverage of the Astros, Warren has also covered the Houston Texans and Houston Rockets during her time at the Chronicle. Warren began her career in photojournalism at the Austin American-Statesman in 1987, where she spent nine years before joining the St. Louis Post-Dispatch in 1996. She joined the Houston Chronicle staff in 1997. A graduate of the University of Texas at Austin, Warren has shot or edited 14 Super Bowls, two World Series runs, the 2004 NLCS, the 2003 College World Series and the 2010 Little League World Series.

LARRY DIERKER (2019 inductee)

Franchise icon Larry Dierker was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on Sept. 22, 2019, his 73rd birthday and the 55th anniversary of his Major League debut, which came as a 17-year old for the Houston Colt. 45s. Dierker debuted with Houston in 1964 and had a remarkable 14-year playing career, including 13 seasons with the Astros (1964-77). After his playing days, Dierker was hired to the club's radio and television broadcast teams in 1979. He worked on both platforms for a total of 20 seasons (1979-96, 2004-05) over two stints in the booth. Dierker has the distinction of moving directly from the broadcast booth to the managerial position, which he did in 1997. He went on to lead the Astros to four playoff appearances (1997-99, 2001) in his five seasons as manager. Since 2005, Dierker has filled a variety of roles with the Astros, including appearances on club broadcasts, writing for team publications and serving as an Astros Community Outreach Executive and as a Special Advisor to the club. Earlier this year, he was inducted into the Astros Hall of Fame, as a member of the inaugural class. Inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor on September 22, 2019.

ELITE COMPANY

Jeff Bagwell hit 43 home runs and stole 31 bases in 1997. He also hit 42 HR with 30 SB in 1999. Bagwell joins Barry Bonds as the only two players in Major League history to record as many as two 40HR/30SB seasons. Bagwell is also the only first baseman in Major League history with a "30-30" season, thanks to his efforts in 1997 and 1999.

OPPONENTS

MOST VALUABLE PLAYER • CY YOUNG • ROOKIE OF THE YEAR

Jose Altuve (AL) and Jeff Bagwell (NL) are the only players in franchise history to win Most Valuable Player awards. Bagwell, Carlos Correa (AL) and Yordan Alvarez (AL) are the only players in club history who have captured the Jackie Robinson Rookie of the Year award. Astros pitchers have captured the Cy Young Award four times, Justin Verlander in 2019 (AL), Dallas Keuchel in 2015 (AL), Roger Clemens in 2004 (NL) and Mike Scott in 1986 (NL). Listed below are all Astros who finished in the top 10 of the MVP voting or received consideration in one year for the circuit's Cy Young and Rookie of the Year honors.

ASTROS HOME RUNS IN HOUSTON

On May 11, 1998, Jeff Bagwell hit his 98th Astrodome home run off the Marlins' Livan Hernandez to put the first baseman one ahead of outfielder Jimmy Wynn, whose 97 Houston homers were the most by any player in the history of the franchise. Bagwell eventually hit 126 home runs in the Astrodome before the Astros moved to Minute Maid Park in 2000. Wynn hit 93 of his roundtrippers in the Astrodome and four in Colt Stadium during his 11-year career which lasted from 1963-73. And, speaking of Colt Stadium, the record for Houston homers in that facility stands at 21 by Bob Aspromonte.

ALL-STAR GAME #39 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 9, 1968

The 1968 All-Star Game reflected overpowering pitching. The two leagues combined for only eight hits and just one run, marking the first 1-0 contest in the history of the Midsummer Classic. The lone run – by the National League – was scored in the 1st inning on a single, an error, a wild pitch, and a double play.

Playing for the injured Pete Rose, Willie Mays led off in the bottom of the 1st and singled to left field. In a failed pick-off at first, Luis Tiant's (CLE) throw went wild, advancing Mays to second. Curt Flood (STL) was then walked, and a fourth-ball wild pitch moved Mays to third. First baseman Willie McCovey (SF) grounded into a double play, but Mays took advantage to score the only run of the game.

With the victory, the NL stretched its winning streak to six. The sixman NL pitching staff held the AL to just three hits, as Tom Seaver (NYM) tossed five strikeouts late in the game and Juan Marichal pitched 2.0 perfect innings. Nine pitchers in the game did not allow a single walk.

The game was the first played indoors and on an artificial surface, as many players got their first look at the Astrodome.

ALL-STAR GAME #57 | ASTRODOME, HOUSTON | JULY 15, 1986

Los Angeles left-hander Fernando Valenzuela fanned five consecutive batters to tie Carl Hubbell's 52-yearold All-Star record, but the National League's pitching triumphs weren't enough as the American League recorded the 3-2 victory on two home runs.

The NL pitching staff sat down 12 total batters, but the AL's Roger Clemens (BOS) had a strong night of his own. He tossed 3.0 perfect innings which included just three balls and 21 strikes. The AL bats came through at the same time as second baseman Lou Whitaker (DET) followed a Dave Winfield (NYY) double with a two-run shot off Dwight Gooden (NYM) in the 2nd. In the 7th inning, Frank White (KC) came in to pinch-hit for Whitaker, knocking an 0-2 pitch from Mike Scott (HOU) over the left-center field wall to seal the Al's second All-Star win in the 1980s

Valenzuela tied the 1934 record for consecutive strikeouts, setting down (in order): Don Mattingly, Cal Ripken, Jesse Barfield, Whitaker, and Ted Higuera.

ALL-STAR GAME #75 | MINUTE MAID PARK, HOUSTON | JULY 13, 2004

The American League displayed its offensive prowess early, scoring six runs in the 1st inning en route to a 9-4 win over the National League in the third All-Star Game played in Houston and the first at Minute Maid Park.

Astros right-hander Roger Clemens, who also started the 1986 All-Star Game in Houston, allowed six runs and five hits in suffering the loss. Clemens allowed two 1st-inning homers, to Manny Ramirez (BOS) and Alfonso Soriano (TEX). Mark Mulder (OAK) pitched 2.0 innings and allowed one run to earn the win. Soriano was named the game's Most Valuable Player after finishing 2x3 with three RBI. Soriano was the first leading vote-getter to also earn MVP honors in the same season.

The National League cut the lead to 7-4 with a three-run 4th, including an RBI double by Edgar Renteria (STL) and a two-run double by Albert Pujols (STL). David Ortiz' (BOS) homer against Carl Pavano (FLA) in the 6th ended the game's scoring.

The AL pitching staff held the NL scoreless through the final 5.0 innings, thanks to scoreless efforts from Javier Vazquez (NYY), Ted Lilly (TOR), Joe Nathan (MIN), Tom Gordon (NYY), Francisco Rodriguez (ATL), and Mariano Rivera (NYY).

The American League won its seventh consecutive victory, not counting the 2002 tie at Miller Park in Milwaukee. The NL remained winless since 1996.

MEDIA INFORMATION

CREDENTIALS

The Houston Astros utilize MLB's online credentialing system. All media credential requests and applications for coverage of the Houston Astros must go through MLB's online credentialing system at http://credentials.mlb.com. Additionally, all 2020 credentials - whether issued by Major League Baseball, the BBWAA, or the Astros – will bear photographs. Scout identification cards will also require photos.

- · Houston Astros season credentials will be issued only to those legitimate news-gathering agencies that cover the Astros on a daily basis. Daily passes will be issued to approved media members who do not qualify for season credentials and who meet Major League Baseball's policies for media access. Requests for daily credentials must come directly from the affiliation editor, producer or director, via the online credential system at least 24 hours in advance of the game being requested. CREDENTIALS MUST BE DISPLAYED IN A VISIBLE MANNER AT ALL TIMES.
- · ALL credential requests, whether season or daily, must go through MLB's online credential system. This will also be the process for Astros regular season, Spring Training, Wild Card and American League Division Series credential applications.
- · Daily credentials will be available at the First Base Entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets, four hours prior to first pitch.
- No spouses, guests or children of media members will be issued passes.
- Credentials are not transferable.
- · Credentialed media are also prohibited from requesting autographs. Any violations will result in the immediate revocation of the
- Credentials may be revoked at any time without cause.

SECURITY: To comply with security measures implemented by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros, all media will be required to follow the following procedures upon entering Minute Maid Park and while covering the game.

When entering Minute Maid Park, please be prepared to:

- Enter the ballpark at the First Base Entrance, located in the Diamond Lot near the intersection of Preston and Hamilton Streets.
- · Provide photo identification.
- · Sign in at the media entrance.
- Allow bags to be searched upon entering the ballpark.

While covering the game, please be prepared to:

- · Clearly display working credentials at all times.
- · Allow bags and equipment cases to be randomly searched if requested by ballpark security officials.
- · Observe credential regulations as set forth by Major League Baseball and the Houston Astros. Only those individuals with the proper credentials will be admitted in the clubhouses, on the field and in the press box.

MEDIA SERVICES

PARKING: Working media may park in the B and C lots at Minute Maid Park with a season credential, BBWAA credential or media identification badge. Entrances to these lots are located on St. Emanuel St., Preston St. and Texas Ave.

MAIN PRESS BOX: The press box and broadcast booths are located on the Honda Club Level behind home plate and are accessible from the press box elevator and the elevator at the First Base Entrance (level C) prior to the opening of gates and after the game. The escalators on the main concourse are available at all times.

MEDIA DINING ROOM: Media dining is located in the press box on the Honda Club Level just behind the broadcast booths. There is a $12 charge per meal. Media dining is open for service 2.5 hours prior to first CLUBHOUSES: Both clubhouses are located on the Service Level and are accessible via the press box elevator. The Astros clubhouse is located on the first base side of the ballpark, while the visiting teams and umpires are on the third base side. Pre- and postgame access rules are determined by Major League Baseball. The Astros clubhouse opens approximately four hours before game time and closes once the team takes the field for batting practice. When the team does not hit outside or under unusual circumstances, the Astros will use their discretion on when to open and close the clubhouse. All times are approximate and subject to change.

General clubhouse rules include:

- · Absolutely no autographs or gifts of any kind.
- · No still photography in the clubhouse.

- Do not sit in the players' chairs.
- · No shooting B-roll inside the clubhouse.
- · When shooting video interviews, please make sure it is only of the player at his locker or in front of a wall while he is giving the interview. Players should be shot from the chest up.

FIELD: All media must leave the field 45 minutes prior to the first pitch. No person will be allowed on the field unless that individual has credentials expressly specifying field privileges (i.e., club pass, photo pass).

PRESS CONFERENCE ROOM: The press conference room is located on the Service Level across from the home clubhouse down the first-base side.

NOTES: Game notes, updated Major League statistics, lineup sheets and other pertinent media information will be available near the entrance of the press box on the Honda Club Level two hours prior to first pitch. Box scores, play-by-play sheets and postgame notes will be available in the same area after each game.

MEDIA GUIDES: Media guides are available upon request in the press box from Astros Communications staff members and are available online at the MLB Pressbox website.

TELEPHONES: Land-line phones are available for media use in the main press areas upon request.

WI-FI: Wireless Internet access is available in Minute Maid Park. Contact the Astros Communications department for details.

ASTROS ON THE WEB: The official website of the Houston Astros is www.astros.com. The site is updated daily with news, statistics, game notes, feature stories and minor league information. The Major League Baseball website, www.mlb.com, can also be accessed via www.astros.com. The Astros also offer a Spanish website, www.astrosdehouston.com. The site features daily news coverage of the team as well as feature stories from international sports writers.

MLB PRESSBOX: With approved registration, media members gain electronic access to numerous Major League Baseball resources by logging onto www.mlbpressbox.com (on the official MLB website). Some of the information on this site includes: public relations contacts; daily statistical updates; daily game notes; current and archived press releases; media guides; press kits; credential language and media regulations; and historical information about MLB and its entities. In addition, this site provides media the opportunity to download HD-quality video, hi-resolution logos and information on special events for all 30 clubs, as well as headshots of players, coaches, umpires and select executives. All media covering the Astros should register on the MLB Pressbox site to access these resources.

MAJOR LEAGUE BASEBALL DRESS GUIDELINES

Major League Baseball requests members of the media covering our games to dress in an appropriate and professional manner that reflects their respect for their colleagues, the teams and the players they are covering. Clubhouses, dugouts, press boxes, interview rooms and the playing field are working areas, and MLB expects members of the media to adhere to a business casual dress code. In that regard, media members are requested to adhere to following dress guidelines:

- · Flip-flops are not permitted in clubhouses
- Jeans should be clean, neat and presentable (e.g., Ripped jeans should be avoided)
- T-shirts bearing offensive, disrespectful or inappropriate messages are not permitted
- Clothing bearing MLB club logos should not be worn in press areas
- Clothing should be appropriate for a business casual work environment. The following are some non-exclusive examples of apparel that should be avoided:
 - » Sheer or see-through clothing
 - » Excessively short skirts, dresses or shorts (e.g., Cut more than 3-4 inches above the knee)
 - » Tank tops, muscle shirts, one-shouldered or strapless shirts
 - » Clothing exposing bare midriffs or visible undergarments

We ask all members of the media to respect these guidelines. MLB will consider appropriate actions in those cases in which the guidelines are violated.

LAS GRANDES LIGAS DE BÉISBOL PAUTAS DE VESTUARIO

Las Grandes Ligas de Béisbol (MLB) solicitan a los miembros de los medios de comunicación que cubren nuestros partidos que se vistan de una manera apropiada y profesional y que refleje su respeto por sus colegas, los equipos y los jugadores que cubren. Las casas club, los dugouts, las áreas de prensa, las salas de entrevista y el campo de juego son áreas de trabajo, y MLB cuenta con que todos los miembros de los medios de comunicación observen su código de vestir ejecutivo casual. Al respecto, les pedimos tener en cuenta las siguientes directrices en su vestuario:

- · Las chancletas (flip-flops) no se permiten en las casas club.
- Los jeans deben estar limpios, y en buena condición (e.g. evitar los jeans rotos)
- Las camisetas que llevan mensajes ofensivos, irrespetuosos o inapropiados no están permitidas.
- Prendas con logos de clubs de MLB no se deben usar en las áreas de la prensa
- El vestuario debe ser apropiado a un ambiente de trabajo de negocios informal. Los siguientes son algunos ejemplos noexclusivos de prendas que se deben evitar:
 - » Ropa transparente
 - » Faldas, vestidos o shorts excesivamente cortos (e.g. más de 3-4 pulgadas arriba de la rodilla)
 - » Camisetas sin mangas, "muscle shirts", camisas de un solo tirante o camisas sin tirantes
 - » Ombligueras o prendas que dejen al descubierto la ropa interior

Les pedimos a todos los miembros de los medios de comunicación que respeten estas directrices. MLB considerará tomar las acciones apropiadas que sean del caso cuando considere que han sido violadas.

Major League Baseball Online Audio, Photography and Video Rules

The following are rules established by Major League Baseball regarding the usage of audio, photos and video online during the regular season by non-rightsholders.

- Any media member credentialed to cover a Major League game must notify and receive permission from the host club or Major League Baseball that he/she intends to post audio or video content online.
- The gathering of audio and video content in clubhouses pre-game and post-game is subject to the host club rules regarding electronic media access.
- The manager's pre-game media availability may not be carried live and audio and video postings may be no longer than 120 seconds.
- 4) One-on-one interviews that are posted online with players, team personnel and baseball officials must be pre-arranged, can be posted for a maximum of 72 hours, must be no longer than 120 seconds long and cannot include any game highlights.
- 5) Any video captured within the ballpark, excluding press conferences, must be limited to 120 seconds and cannot be carried live.
- 6) No live or taped audio or video is permitted to be captured by any entities other than rightsholders from 45 minutes prior to game time until the game has concluded.
- 7) The post-game manager's press conference may be captured via video and audio and posted online but may not be carried live. This specific content may be archived for 72 hours.
- 8) Entities credentialed for photography may transmit on-line or display up to seven still pictures or photographs of any Game during its progress; provided, however, that under no circumstances may Bearer display any more than seven still pictures or photographs of any Game during its progress regardless of whether Bearer obtained such pictures or photographs at the Game.

TODD KALAS

TV PLAY-BY-PLAY BROADCASTER

- The 2020 season marks Todd Kalas' fourth as the Astros play-by-play voice on television. Kalas, who is the son of Hall of Famer and former Astros broadcaster Harry Kalas, has 28 seasons of experience as a broadcaster in professional baseball.
- Prior to joining the Astros in 2017, Todd spent the previous 19 seasons (1998-2016) as part of the Tampa Bay Rays TV broadcast team. While his primary duties for the Rays were as pre- and postgame host and in-game reporter, Kalas also handled play-by-play duties for hundreds of Rays games on both television and radio during his time there.
- Known for his distinctive voice and personality, Kalas grew to be a popular figure with Rays fans as a result of his work on the broadcasts and was a three-time Suncoast Emmy award winner.
- Prior to joining the Rays, Kalas also worked with the New York Mets radio (1992-93) and Philadelphia Phillies television (1994-96) broadcast teams.
- A native Houstonian, Todd was born at St. Luke's Episcopal Hospital in Houston while his father, Harry, served as an Astros broadcaster from 1965-70. Harry would later call Phillies games from 1971-2009 en route to a Hall of Fame career.
 When the Phillies and Rays met in the 2008 World Series, Todd and his father called an inning together on radio during Game One of the Fall Classic.
- Kalas graduated with a degree in broadcast journalism from Syracuse University, and began his baseball career with the Louisville Redbirds in 1991.
- In the off-season, he has handled college football, basketball and baseball play-by-play as well as being a studio host for NHL and NBA teams.
- · Kalas and his wife, Michele, reside in Houston.

GEOFF BLUM

TV COLOR BROADCASTER

- Geoff Blum returns for his eighth season with the Astros TV broadcast team in 2020, his fourth as the everyday color analyst for Astros telecasts. Blum, who retired after 14 Major League seasons as an infielder (1999-2012), made the transition from the playing field to the broadcast booth in 2013.
- During his playing career, Blum had two stints with the Astros, totaling five seasons in Houston (2002-03, 2008-10). Over the course of his tenure with the Astros, Blum hit .259 with 228 RBI, 46 homers, 77 doubles and a .711 OPS.
- A switch-hitter, Blum was known as one of the top pinch-hitters and utility players in the game, appearing at all four infield positions for nine straight seasons (2000-08). He appeared in the postseason three times in his career (2005-06, 2011).
- Geoff and his wife, Kory, have four daughters: Mia Lea and triplets Ava, Audrey and Kayla.

JULIA MORALES

TV SIDELINE REPORTER

- Julia Morales returns for her eighth season as the Astros TV sideline reporter. As a reporter and anchor for AT&T SportsNet, Morales serves as the primary in-game reporter on Houston Astros telecasts. She recently won an Emmy for her work on AT&T SportsNet's weekly show Astros Bases Loaded and created a fan-favorite segment with Astros manager AJ Hinch called Covering All the Bases.
- Before moving to Houston, she worked as a sports reporter for Time Warner Cable News, formerly YNN in Austin, covering a wide range of sporting events including the Super Bowl, NBA Finals, World Series, and College Baseball World Series.
- Prior to joining the Time Warner Cable sports crew, Julia was the weekend sports anchor/reporter for KYTX-TV in Tyler, Texas. Julia began her television career at KTEN-TV in Denison, Texas.
- A native of Crandall, Texas, Morales spent two years as a "World Famous Kilgore College Rangerette" before graduating from UT Austin where she was a member of Texas Pom for the Longhorns' 2005 National Championship season.
- Julia is extremely passionate about animals and serves on the Board of Directors for Houston Pets Alive!, a no-kill animal rescue. She and her husband, Matt, foster rescue dogs in the offseason.

ROBERT FORD

RADIO BROADCASTER

- Robert Ford was named to the Astros radio broadcast team to work alongside Steve Sparks as the play-by-play commentator on Feb. 13, 2013. He enters his eighth season on the Astros radio broadcast.
- Prior to joining the Astros, Ford had served as the radio pre- and postgame host for Kansas City Royals games on 610 AM KCSP, the Royals flagship station, since 2009.
- He has seven years of experience broadcasting minor league baseball, having called more than 800 games during stints with the Binghamton Mets, Kalamazoo Kings and Yakima Bears. Ford was twice named Frontier League Broadcaster of the Year (2003 and 2004). He also has extensive play-by-play experience in college basketball, including calling games for ESPN the past two seasons.
- He is a 2001 graduate of Syracuse University, where he earned a bachelor's degree in broadcast journalism.
- Ford has twice been a finalist for the Esurance MLB Award for "Best Call, TV/Radio," including in 2017 for his call of Alex Bregman's walk-off RBI single in Game 5 of the World Series.
- · Ford lives in Houston and has a daughter, Elena.

STEVE SPARKS

RADIO BROADCASTER

- Steve Sparks was named to the Astros radio broadcast team to work alongside Robert Ford as the color commentator on Feb. 13, 2013. He enters his eighth season on the Astros radio broadcast.
- Sparks has served as a pre- and postgame analyst for Astros television games over the last several seasons and has also filled in as a color analyst on Astros radio and television broadcasts.
- A knuckleballer in his playing days, Sparks pitched in the Major Leagues in parts of nine seasons (1995-2004) for the Brewers, Angels, Tigers, A's and Diamondbacks. His best season was in 2001 while with Detroit when he went 14-9 in 35 appearances (33 starts) with a 3.65 ERA while leading the Majors in complete games with eight. He also tallied a career high in innings pitched (232.0) that season.
- Sparks attended Sam Houston State University, where he led the Bearkats to back-to-back Gulf Star Conference baseball titles and an NCAA Division II Regional playoff appearance in 1986 and again in the school's first year at the Division I level in 1987. On Nov. 3, 2017, Sparks was inducted into the Sam Houston Letterman's Association Hall of Honor.

MATT BOLTZ

RADIO BROADCAST ENGINEER

- Matt Boltz enters his sixth season with the Houston Astros and his 20th overall season in Major League Baseball.
- Boltz is the Radio Broadcast Engineer & Producer for the Astros Radio Network. He generates, maintains and produces all live audio for the entire Spring Training, regular season & postseason schedule. In addition, he orchestrates all broadcast material, live commercial inventory, promotions and live interviews with the broadcasters, the front office, the radio flagship and the entire radio network.
- His offseason duties include editing and archiving all recorded sound, managing and servicing technical elements and assisting with network affiliate relations. Boltz also engineers and produces Astroline, the Astros weekly offseason hot stove radio show which has been on the air since 1988.
- Prior to joining the Astros, Boltz served as the Radio Producer Engineer for the Chicago Cubs Radio Network from 2001-2014. During that time, he also engineered game broadcasts for WGN Chicago and Northwestern Wildcats basketball and football programs.
- Boltz resides in Pearland, Texas, with his wife, Melissa, and their two children: Emma Lucille and Theodore Matthew.

FRANCISCO ROMERO

SPANISH RADIO BROADCASTER

- Francisco Romero enters his 13th season of play-by-play on the Astros Spanish radio network.
- Francisco joined the Astros in 2008 after spending five seasons broadcasting Milwaukee Brewers games in Spanish on Telemundo Wisconsin. His Major League broadcasting experience also includes selected Minnesota Twins games over five seasons from 2003-08.
- His Major League broadcast debut was for the Arizona Diamondbacks on Telemundo Arizona in 1999, and he spent two years on Diamondbacks broadcasts from 1999-2000.
- Other Major League broadcasting experience includes select games on Spanish Radio with the Cincinnati Reds in 2005.
 He also spent four seasons as the play-by-play broadcaster and pre- and postgame show producer on Spanish radio broadcasts for the Triple A Tucson Sidewinders of the Pacific Coast League.
- Additional sports broadcasting experience includes both football and basketball for the University of Arizona Spanish Radio Network (1999-present), as well as three seasons on the Arizona Cardinals radio halftime report.
- In 2015, Francisco and his broadcast partner Alex Treviño had the distinction of starting the Spanish broadcast efforts for the Kansas City Royals as they were asked to simulcast for both markets (Houston and Kansas City) during the Royals Hispanic Heritage Celebration while playing the Houston Astros. The duo also currently produce a series of webisodes that can be found on the Astros Spanish social media channels.
- Francisco has been part of three Spanish broadcast effort debuts (Brewers, Reds and Royals) and is the only Spanish broadcaster to have broadcast games for six different Major League Baseball teams (Diamondbacks, Brewers, Twins, Reds, Royals and Astros).
- In addition to broadcasting baseball games, Francisco was the English as a Second Language instructor for the Arizona Diamondbacks and the Chicago White Sox (extended Spring Training) players from 1998 - 2001.
- A graduate of the University of Arizona, Francisco spent 10 years as the sports anchor for the Telemundo affiliate in Tucson, Arizona, as well as one year as general assignment reporter.
- Francisco has been behind the microphone with the Houston Astros as he has called (4) no-hitters and (1) perfect game.
- As a sports anchor/reporter for Telemundo Francisco covered some of the most important sports events in the world such as: MLB World Series, MLB All-Star Games, Super Bowl Games, NBA Finals, the Road to the World Cup, NCAA Basketball Tournaments, NCAA Softball Tournaments, NCAA Baseball Tournaments, NASCAR and Championship Boxing.
- In 2005, Francisco was inducted into his High School Media Hall of Fame, Pueblo High School in Tucson, Ariz. Francisco

ALEX TREVIÑO

SPANISH RADIO BROADCASTER

- Alex Treviño returns for his 25th season of analysis on the Astros Spanish radio network.
- A native of Monterrey, Mexico, he spent 13 seasons in the Majors, primarily as a catcher, including the 1988-90 seasons with the Astros. He also spent time with the Mets, Reds, Braves, Giants and Dodgers.
- Alex hit a career-high .290 while serving as Houston's backup catcher in 1989 and hit .364 (32x88) in 25 starts.
- He played in 939 Major League games and had a .249 lifetime average.
- Alex joined the broadcast booth in 1996 and has called more than 3,000 Astros games, seven postseason appearances and the 2005 World Series run.
- As of 2020, Alex's 25 seasons in the broadcast booth are the most in franchise history by a Spanish broadcaster, besting Orlando Sanchez Diago's record of 21 years.
- In September 2014, Alex was inducted into the Houston Baseball Media Wall of Honor for his significant and lasting contributions to the landscape of Houston baseball through his work in broadcasting.

STEVE GRANDE

SENIOR MANAGER, COMMUNICATIONS

- Steve Grande (@AstrosGrande) is in his 13th season (2008-20) as a full-time member of the Houston Astros Communications staff, his fourth as Senior Manager of Communications.
- In addition to his day-to-day media relations and communications duties, Grande is responsible for coordinating front office, manager, coach, and player interview and photo requests, producing the Astros media guide, overseeing the production of the department's baseball information, reviewing all season credential requests and is the media and scheduling coordinator for the Shriners Hospitals for Children College Classic and the Houston Winter Invitational.
- Grande travels on the majority of the club's road trips and has traveled on select road trips in each of his 12 full-time seasons. He has worked 13 Spring Trainings, 10 playoff series (2019 ALDS, 2019 ALCS, and 2019 W5; 2018 ALDS and 2018 ALCS; 2017 ALCS, 2017 ALCS and 2017 W5; 2015 ALDS; 2010 NLCS) and the 2015 AL Wild Card Game, as well as the 2017 and 2018 Major League Baseball All-Star Game. Additionally, he helped plan and coordinate the media aspects of MLB's 2012 and 2013 Urban Invitational in Houston.
- Prior to joining the Astros full-time in 2008, Grande split his 2007 season interning in the Media Relations departments for the then Florida Marlins and the Astros.
- Grande also has experience outside the sports industry while working at two different public relations entities, both based out of Austin, Texas. In 2006, Grande got his professional start as an intern with BookPros Publishing Company in their publicity department. He moved on to intern for the public relations agency GCI Read-Poland in their public affairs department before leaving to pursue a career in sports.
- Grande received his bachelor's degree in public relations with a minor in business from Texas State University-San Marcos in May of 2006. A native Houstonian, Grande graduated from Klein Oak High School in Spring, TX. He resides in Tomball with his wife, Ginny, and their two-year-old son James.

CHRIS PEIXOTO

MANAGER, COMMUNICATIONS

- Chris Peixoto is in his ninth season as a full-time member of the Astros Communications staff (2012-20), and his third as Manager of Communications.
- Peixoto contributes to all aspects of the club's baseball information, coordinates front office, manager, coach and player interview requests, writes content for the Astros media guide, manages the club's minor league information and media requests, and handles all Spring Training credential requests.
- Peixoto travels with the club on road trips throughout the year and has worked the entirety of Spring Training in every year since 2014. He has worked nine playoff series with the Astros, including the 2017 and 2019 World Series, and assisted Major League Baseball with the 2016 ALCS in Toronto.
- Peixoto first joined the Astros Media Relations department as a summer intern in 2010, before serving as a Baseball Operations intern with the club during the 2011 season.
- Peixoto received his Bachelor of Science degree in sport management from the University of Massachusetts in May 2012.
 During his four years at UMass, he was an intern in the school's athletic media relations department. Peixoto also served an internship with the Kraft Sports Group in the summer of 2009.
- A native of Dighton, Mass., Peixoto graduated from Dighton-Rehoboth Regional High School in 2008. He currently resides in Houston with his wife, Angela.

- He is a fifth-generation Galvestonian, and still lives on the island.

MINUTE MAID PARK

The 2020 season marks the 20th anniversary of Minute Maid Park. The venue has hosted numerous special events, including the 2004 All-Star Game and Home Run Derby, the World Series (2005, 2017, 2019), the 2014 Civil Rights Game, Super Bowl LI Opening Night, major concert events, weddings, graduations and galas.

The year 2000 saw something the grand old game of baseball had not experienced since 1964 — a Major League team in Houston playing on natural grass outdoors. While clear skies and real grass were welcome additions for fans, the Bayou City hardballfaithful also enjoyed another first, Minute Maid Park's 242 foot-tall retractable roof. More than 3 million fans embraced the new ballpark in its inaugural season. Since then, the club has welcomed more than 44 million visitors during the facility's 18-season tenure.

Minute Maid Park has become a welcome home for the Houston Astros and has ushered in a new era of Major League sports in the city. With the downtown ballpark, Houston continues to stand on the forefront of modern stadium construction that began with the club's previous home - the Astrodome. The park's retractable roof brought open-air baseball to Houston for the first time in 35 years, and the natural grass field and classic architecture provided the opportunity of capturing the same atmosphere from the great ballparks of baseball's golden age.

Approval of the ballpark, however, was not limited to the applause of the fans. Less than one calendar year after its opening, Minute Maid Park had already been recognized on local, state and national levels with several awards. The following are the first three major awards with which the new home of the Astros were honored:

- · Greater Houston Preservation Alliance, 2000 Good Brick Award. The President's Award was presented to former owner Drayton McLane, the Astros and the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority for the renovation of the 1911 Union Station building. The Good Brick Awards are presented annually in recognition of leadership and excellence in historic
- Most Outstanding Civil Engineering Project. This honor came from the Texas Section of the American Society of Civil Engineers (ASCE), a professional organization that represents the vast majority of civil engineers.
- · National Honor Award for Engineering Excellence. This national recognition for engineering excellence came from the American Consulting Engineers Council (ACEC). This honor stamped Minute Maid Park as one of the top 24 engineering projects among all buildings and civil works projects nationally.
- LOCATION: Minute Maid Park is located at 501 Crawford Street on the northeast end of downtown Houston.

Situated near the George R. Brown Convention Center, Discovery Green and BBVA Compass Stadium, the ballpark is located one block west of U.S. 59 and is bound by Congress Avenue on the north, Texas Avenue on the south, Crawford Street on the west and Hamilton Street on the east.

HISTORY: The idea for a public-private financing drive for a downtown Houston ballpark was conceived in 1996.

Fourteen leading Houston companies joined together to form the Houston Sports Facility Partnership. The Partnership agreed to provide a $35 million interest-free loan with no repayment due until 10 years of ballpark operation had passed. With the Partnership's initial commitment, the Harris County-Houston Sports Authority had the support it needed to present a ballpark proposal to the public in November 1996. Voters approved the $250 million project.

ALL-STAR GAME: In 2004, Minute Maid Park played host to the 75th Major League Baseball All-Star Game. More than 350,000 people participated in All-Star Week activities, which included the Futures Game, the Legends/Celebrity Softball Game, and the Home Run Derby - all of which took place at Minute Maid Park - in addition to the John Hancock All-Star Fan Fest. The week culminated with the All-Star Game and a 9-4 American League win over the National League squad, Four Astros played for the National League squad, including the NL starting pitcher Roger Clemens, Carlos

FIRST GAMES: The Houston Astros and New York Yankees played an exhibition game on March 30, 2000, with Houston winning 6-5. The Astros hosted the Philadelphia Phillies in the first official regular-season game on April 7, 2000, with Philadelphia winning 4-1.

Beltran, Jeff Kent and Lance Berkman.

ARCHITECT: The Architect of Minute Maid Park was HOK Sports Facilities Group, along with Construction Manager Brown & Root Services, a business unit of Halliburton Company.

THE NAME: On June 5, 2002, the Houston Astros and The Minute Maid Company announced that they had expanded their relationship to create a long-term marketing and community partnership. The multi-year partnership agreement included naming rights for the downtown ballpark, rechristening the field "Minute Maid Park."

The partnership agreement also stipulated the pouring rights for products of The Coca-Cola Company, ongoing advertising and marketing programs, and a commitment by Minute Maid to support youth baseball programs in the Houston area.

The Minute Maid Company is an operating unit of The Coca-Cola Company and the flagship of its worldwide fruit beverage business. The Minute Maid Company has been headquartered in Houston since 1967.

Houston's downtown ballpark was originally named Enron Field on April 7, 1999, and was renamed Astros Field on Feb. 27, 2002, by an agreement between the Houston Astros and Enron Corporation.

SIZE: The building dimensions cover 28.97 acres of gross square footage, a total of 1,263,240 square feet. The height is 93 feet to the last seating tread, equivalent to a nine-story building.

TRAIN: A replica of a 19th century locomotive (circa 1860) and linked coal tender is a fan favorite. The train provides an architectural icon which combines sight, sound and motion for a dynamic entertainment and celebration feature. It also provides a link to the past for Houston and the Union Station site. The train was designed by Uni-Systems and built by SMI & Hydraulics, which also provided the transporters for the retractable roof. Weighing close to 50,000 pounds, the train runs some 800 feet along the low roof track on the west side of the ballpark.

MINUTE MAID PARK

UNION STATION: According to HOK's design platform, the most literal tie between Houston's past and its new ballpark is a physical line to Union Station. On March 2, 1911, Houston's second downtown Union Station, rebuilt at a cost of $500,000, opened its doors for the first time. In the 104 years since, it has served as an epicenter of the city's population growth, been a catalyst for commercial evolution, and become an identifying landmark within the downtown skyline.

Houston was once described as "Where 17 Railroads Meet the Sea". An article in a 1913 issue of "The Rotarian" called Houston the "City of First Consideration" and "The Largest Manufacturing City in the Southwest." Union Station was at the center of it all, the hub of a strong industrial municipality that specialized in oil, rice, sugar and lumber. The historic landmark has also served as a shelter for hurricane refugees and has been visited by Presidents of the United Trains with names such as Acadian, Argonaut, Katy Flyer, California Special, Lone Star, Orleanean and Pioneer made hundreds of stops at Union Station during its active period (1911-1974). Other trains with monikers such as Sam Houston Zephyr, Southerner, Sunset Limited, Sunshine Special, Texas Chief, Texas Eagle, Texas Rocket and Valley Eagle routinely picked up passengers there as well.

The first-floor Great Hall still includes much of Union Station's original architectural work. It currently serves as a general reception area for guests, functions as an event space, and houses the Astros Team Store. Each Astros fan who enters Minute Maid Park through Union Station retraces the steps of passengers who boarded trains in another era.

Today, the conference rooms and event spaces occupying the second and third floor of the renovated Union Station at Minute Maid Park (open 365 days a year) are named after some of the trains listed above. They are honored as both a tribute to hardworking rail personnel and in remembrance of Union Station's historic importance.

The Houston Astros executive offices occupy the fourth and fifth floors of the building. The sixth floor houses the Roof Deck and Club House at Union Station, where groups of up to 100 people can watch Astros baseball with scenic views of downtown Houston as a backdrop.

Though it sat vacant for a quarter century from 1974-1999, the former transit hub has re-taken its rightful place on the Houston skyline, now serving as the gateway to Astros baseball and remaining an important landmark in downtown Houston.

PLAYING FIELD: Featuring Platinum TE Paspalum grass, the playing surface covers 2.5 acres. The drainage and irrigation systems include 6,682 linear feet of perforated pipe and 4,406 linear feet of PVC pipe, respectively. A total of 51 irrigation heads help make the job for Head Groundskeeper Izzy Hinojosa and his staff much easier.

All grassed areas of the playing field are also constructed to USGA golf green construction specifications, allowing for excellent drainage and a growing media which is ideal for maintaining high-performance turfgrass.

SOUNDS: More than 400 speaker cabinets are scattered throughout the seating areas and almost 1,000 are found along the concourses. The speakers are distributed throughout the ballpark to have cabinets as close to the fans as possible.

THE ROOF: Architects from the HOK Sports Facilities Group recommended early on that a retractable roof would be appropriate for the Texas climate. Since building the first retractable-roof ballpark – the Skydome in 1989 – designers have crafted several kinds of retractable roofs. Some, for instance, open only over a small central section. The roof at Minute Maid Park, however, retracts completely off the ballpark to reveal the largest open area of any retractable roofed baseball stadium in existence today. A total of 50,000 square feet of glass in the west wall of the retractable roof gives fans a view of the Houston skyline, even when the roof is in the closed position.

Uni-Systems provided the technical expertise to design the best roof structure for Minute Maid Park. Mechanized roof panels open and close in 14-20 minutes. The roof moves back and forth an estimated 160 times a year, a distance of 14.6 miles. To cover the ballpark, steel panels roll in sequence along tracks on the east and west sides of the stadium. When the roof is open, the southern and northern panels, each of which measures 537 by 120 feet and weighs 1,905 metric tons, rest at the north end below the large middle section with its dimension of 589 by 242 feet and a weight of 3,810 metric tons. Designers determined the roof's shape – lower side panels flanking the high center panel – by tracking a batted baseball's hyperbolic flight path. Forged steel wheels, 140 in total, measuring 35 inches in diameter transport the three roof panels.

CONCESSIONS: Prior to the 2014 season the Astros and their exclusive food and beverage partner, Aramark, unveiled a $1.8 million renovation to Minute Maid Park's main concourse, featuring eight new food and beverage concepts. As part of the transformation to enhance the dining experience, the Astros and Aramark completely overhauled the look and feel of the stands by re-branding each concept with a new name and menu, adding more vibrant signage and lighting, and introducing contemporary color schemes and decor. With the 2014 extension of the Astros and Aramark partnership, future enhancements will continue to incorporate fan feedback and market research into the development and design of new menu concepts and dining options throughout Minute Maid Park. In addition, they will explore new and unique ways to showcase Houston's cuisine and culinary talent, such as local top chef Jimmy Coatsworth who has partnered with Aramark to bring his signature menu items to Minute Maid Park.

TECHNOLOGY: Following the 2010 season, the Houston Astros installed two new, high-definition video boards and a large ribbon board at Minute Maid Park in time for the start of the 2011 Major League Baseball season. The new primary video board is located in right field and measures 54 feet high and 124 feet wide (approximately 6,695 square feet), making it the third-largest board of its kind in the Major Leagues when installed. The Astros previous video board that had been in the ballpark since its inception in 2000 was 26 feet high and 45 feet wide. Additionally, the Astros have the largest video board in the Major Leagues featuring 1080i display format. A smaller video board, measuring 24 feet high by 40 feet wide, was installed in left field, and a ribbon board, stretching from foul pole to foul pole and more than 1,000 feet long, was also added. A speed pitch board and an old-fashioned, manually-operated scoreboard keep fans on top of the action in the ballpark and in every other big league venue. When it opened in 2000, Minute Maid Park was the first major sports facility to feature a closed-captioning board for the hearing impaired. Daktronics, one of the world's largest suppliers of electronic boards, is the company responsible for the Astros new boards. The new state-of-the-art HD video board high atop Minute Maid Park provides fans with award-winning special video features and effects created by Astros Productions.

RENOVATIONS: Prior to the 2017 sesaon, the Astros made major renovations to the center field area. The center field area is now home to new concessions including fan-favorites Shake Shack, Torchy's Tacos and Pluckers, the Lexus Club, retail and more. Following the 2019 season, the Houston Astros renovated the suite level to create the Michelob Ultra Bar. In addition, a new club, The Texas and Crawford Club, was added down the left field line to hold up to 120 people.

MLB GUIDELINES FOR THE MOVEMENT OF RETRACTABLE ROOFS

The decision as to whether a game begins with the roof open or closed rests solely with the home club.

If the game begins with the roof open: it shall be closed only in the event of impending rain or other adverse weather conditions. The decision to close the roof shall be made by the home club, after consultation with the Umpire Crew Chief.

The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.

Once the roof is closed during a game, it shall not be re-opened.

If the game begins with the roof closed: it may be opened when, in the opinion of the home club, the climatic environment has reached a level where fan comfort and enjoyment will be best served by opening the roof to the natural atmospheric conditions. Notwithstanding the foregoing, the following guidelines should be applied to opening the roof during a game.

- > The roof may only open once during a game.
- > The Umpire Crew Chief will be notified at the commencement of the inning that the roof will be opened at the inning's conclusion.
- > The Umpire Crew Chief shall notify the visiting club, which may challenge the opening of the roof if it feels that a competitive imbalance will arise. In such an event, the Umpire Crew Chief shall make a final decision based on the merits of the challenge.
- > The opening of the roof shall only commence between innings.
